

corner of the ballot and binding on the upper edge thereof, but separated therefrom by a line running the entire width of said coupon. Upon said coupon shall be printed the words "Voter's name," with a line drawn thereunder for writing said name, and under the said line the words "Number of voter," followed by a blank space for the insertion of the number. Before distribution said ballots shall be so folded in marked creases that no part of the marks or printing except that upon the back and outside and upon the detachable stub or coupon shall be visible.

The laws now in force for the conduct of general elections in Washington County and for the defraying of the expenses thereof shall apply in all particulars not herein especially provided for, and any election in which this question is submitted to the vote of the people of said County shall be conducted in strict accordance with all the provisions and requirements of the Corrupt Practices Act.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Supervisors of Elections of said County shall, as soon as convenient after receiving and canvassing all the ballots cast "For license" and "Against license" in Washington County, proclaim the result of said election and publish such proclamation in at least two newspapers published in that County and shall record in a well-bound book, to be kept in their office by them and their successors, the result of the vote upon said proposition, and such result may be proved in all courts and in all proceedings by such record or by the official certificate under Supervisors of Elections. There shall be no election on such question after it has been once submitted to the people within a period of forty-two months from the date of such election, but after such time said question may be resubmitted in the same manner as is provided in the previous sections of this Act for its submission, and the provisions of this Act for the carrying into effect of the result of such election shall apply in the same manner to such future elections.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That if a majority of the legal voters voting upon said proposition shall vote "For License," then the laws affecting the sale of liquor in said County now in force on the statute books of said County shall remain in full force and effect. But if a majority of the legal voters voting upon said proposition shall vote "Against license," then on and after the first day of May following such election it shall be un-
