THE LIVING CHURCH

1,500 attend Holiness youth convention

CHOIR MEMBERS at the annual holiness convention held July 19-22 at the Hilton Hotel are shown marching to their seats for the national choir musical.

1,500 holiness members spent most of their weekend at the Hilton Hotel for the 27th national youth convention of the Mount Sinai Holy Church of America Inc.

Delegates from more than 20 states attended the four day convention and heard Bishop Mary E. Jackson, president, give her annual speech on July 22.

The 97-year-old bishop stated, "God has truly blessed me. I am grateful to God for preserving my life to reach this age. The closer my age approaches 100 years the more the truth of God's word is stirred in my soul."

She added, "There is a burning in my soul to warn men, women and children that we must all give account of the deeds done in this body and that the coming of the Lord draweth near. Holiness is required of the youth as well as the aged. No one is too young or too old to find the Lord and live holy."

Convention officers were Evangelist Evelyn Williams, president; Mrs. Sylvia Corley, recording secretary; Mrs. Conchita Villegas, corresponding secretary; and minister, Harry Bellinger. New youth officers elected were Elder Ray McKenzie, president; Evangelist Harry Bellinger, vice president; Mrs. BarbarauGray and Mrs. Sylvia Corley, secretary and minister, Gregory Martin, treasurer. (Continued on Page 19)

BISHOP MARY JACKSON, 97, was the guest speaker on Sunday, July 22 for the 27th national youth convention held at the Hilton Hotel. "Holiness unto the Lord" was the theme for the convention.

HAND CLAPPING — The youth department of the Mount Sinai Holy Church of America, Inc. sponsored a musical on July 20 that was recorded by T. R. Music Publishers until 4 a.m. Several members of the church shown seem to be enjoying the gospel music.

Lott Carey youth seminar convenes for 25th year

By Angie Thornton

More than 500 youth ranging in ages from 12 to 25 years gathered together for the 25th Annual Christian Youth Seminar sponsored by the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention. The seminar was held from June 24 to June 29 at Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Youth representatives from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, and North Carolina came together for one week devoted to the purpose of gaining world - wide views of current problems, to receive a Christian approach and techniques in meeting these problems and to awaken in themselves a sense of responsibity as Christians.

This being the seminars' 25th Anniversary year, much attention was given to the man for whom the Convention was named, the Rev. Lott Carey - a lsave, who was the first American missionary to africa. A play entitled Lott Carey - A Man With A Mission was presented with the assistance of Mrs. Gloria Redd, Mrs. Ardena Johnson, and Mrs. Lillian Drumwright and the participation of youth from Union,, Providence, Faith, First, City Temple, and Mt. Sinai Baptist Churches of Baltimore. The play was adopted from the book written by Rev. Leroy Fitts of First Baptist Church.

The theme this year was "The Lving Christ in a Time of Conflict." Through rap sessions and various speakers, he youth were able to discuss and develope topics pertaining to the theme.

One of the major topics dicussed was that of "Cults." Dr. SamsGandy of Howard University was discussion leader on this subject. Other speakers presented during the seminar were Dr. Stanley H. Smith, President of Shaw University; Rev. Clara Morton; and Rev. R. G. Williams, Pres. of Executive Board of Lott Carey Convention and Minister of the Mt. Moriah Baptist Church of Washington, D.C.

The Lott Carey Baptist Convention has Christian missions in Liberia, Nigeria, India and Guyana, South America. During the seminar the youth pinned over $500.00 on a blanket towards a project to furnish books for a library built in Liberia by the Convention.

Youth representatives from Baltimore included Michael Cuthrie, Michael Smith, Brenda Brooks, Brenda McDaniels, Learha Cunningham, Maurice Carter, William Thorton, Marlow Garnes, Michelle Anderson, Wendy Hunter, Brian Hunter, Jessie Snowden, and Mrs. Francis Gaines from Union Baptist Church; Leslie Johnson, Beverly Williams, and Russell Johnson from Providence Baptist; Michael Stills, Carl Goode, and Formithia Hurt from Faith Baptist; Renee Austin, Anthony White from City Temple; and Eric Johnson from Union Baptist of Turner Station.

Those people directly responsible for the planning of the Seminar are the Rev. Marcus Wood, pastor of Providence Baptist Church and Director of Promotion, Mrs. Doris R. Griffin of Richmond, Va.; Coordinator, Mrs. Mary Hendrick, Director of Youth Work, and Dr. Wendell C. Somerville, Executive Secretary of the Convention. Miss P. Michelle Felton is the president of the Youth Seminar.

Metro Church Briefs

A prayer breakfast will be held July 28, 8:30 a.m., at Friendship Baptist Church, 346 Denison St. The Rev. William McCoy is pastor.

The Rev. Dr. Walter Thomas, pastor of New Psalmist Baptist Church, will be the speaker on July 27, 7:30 a.m., at a prayer breakfast at St. John's AME Church, 810 Carrollton Ave. The Rev. Benjamin Foust is pastor. The breakfast is being sponsored by the We Need Prayer headquarters as part of the spiritual weekend activities.

The fourth annual altar call will be held 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. July 28 in Druid Hill Park with local ministers and choirs participating. The theme is "Get On Board Little Children, There's Room For Many A More." The Rev. Mrs. Mary Antoinette Phillips is founder and organizer. Del. Larry Young is general chairman.

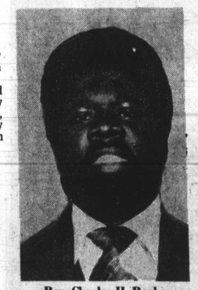
Missionary Day will be observed July 28 at the Ray of Hope Baptist Church. The Rev. David Jordan, pastor of Triumph Baptist Church, will be the speaker. The Rev. Dr. Charles M. Franklin is pastor.

The Youth For Christ Choir will sponsor a program on Aug. 5, 3:30 p.m., at the Refuge Way of the Cross Church of Christ, 43rd Street and Old York Road. Bishop Leroy H. Cannady Sr. is pastor.

Members of All Saints Choir will celebrate their sixth anniversary on July 28 and 29 at All Saints Catholic Church, 4408 Liberty Heights Ave., at 6 p.m. William Cummings is director.

The Raymond Kelly Junior Guild of Harlem Park Community Baptist Church, 612-18 Gilmor St., will sponsor a trip to Atlantic City on Aug. 4. For ticket information call 523-4762.

New minister at United Baptist



Rev. Charles H. Peaker

Ordination services for the Rev. Charles H. Peaker were held recently at United Baptist Church, 932 Broadway. The Rev. Toliver Perkins was the guest speaker and the Rev. Dr. George E. Vanderford, pastor of United Baptist, presided at the service.

The Rev. Peaker is also a teacher at Houston Woods Junior - Senior High School. When he returns from his three week vacation, he will be assuming more responsibilities in assisting the Rev. Vanderford. The Rev. Peaker says he plans to attend Virginia Union School of Theology and will commit himself to greater service and involvement in the ministry.

Other ministers who participated in the ordination services were REvs. Vincent Thompson, Dr. Lorenzo Graves, Rev. Harold Carter, Quay Rich, Joseph Rucker, Ivan Jackson. Guests at the ordination included relatives of the Rev. H. Peaker from Bel Air, Md.; Gerrard Smith of Chicago and numerous friends.

TEENAGE CLASS — Mrs. Verna Jones and Alfred Barnes were teachers for the arts and crafts teen Bible School class at Trinity AME Church where the Rev. W. K. Woods is pastor. The annual vacation Bible school held its closing activities on July 20. The program included songs, Bible recitations, skit-paralytic and exhibition. Deytre Griffin was the coordinator.

Photo by I. Henry Phillips Studio

KIDS AND CRAFTS — Students in the primary Bible School class at Trinity AME Church listen while instructor, Mrs. Patricia Garrett, gives lesson in arts and crafts.

Public Spirit Awards honor community workers

AFRO photo by Mark Gail

TEACHER HONORED — Long-time teacher and administrator in the public schools, Mrs. Essie Meade Hughes gives remarks before accepting her award at the Celebration of the Public Spirit Awards ceremonies July 22 at the Village of Cross Keys.

A benefitting tribute to several of Baltimore's finest individuals and organizations was the Celebration of the Public Spirit Awards held at the Village of Cross Keys on Sunday, July 22, 1979. The occasion was sponsored by FOB (Friends Of Bar.) a power packed group of energetic workers largely responsible for the 1978 election victory of Delegate Rev. Wendell H. Phillips to the Maryland House of Delegates, 41st District.

Delegate Wendell H. Phillips was the master of ceremonies at the affair which brought together numerous associates, family and friends of persons who have worked behind the scenes for many years, supplying vigor and positive commitmentmovement toward uplifting the human spirit, improving the quality of life, and creating a more just and humane community in Baltimore.

Allendale Community Association Inc.; an Edmondson Village area doing much to improve the community;

Judge Robert M. Bell - associate judge, District Court of Maryland;

The Rev. Maurice Blackwell, co-pastor, St. Bernadine's Catholic Church;

Leroy Durham - coordinator for the High Education Program in corrections at Morgan State University;

John W. Eckhardt, M.D., chief of division of neurology and director of electroencephalography lab at Mercy Hospital;

Judge Joseph Howard Sr.; recent appointee to the Federal District Court;

Essie M. Hughes, former assistant principal at Douglass High School and Western High School;

Gordon E. Kamka, secretary, Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services;

Kenneth L. Johnson, lawyer and lead counsel in employment discrimination cases in five major cities on the East Coast;

George K. McKinney, chief security officer to the Department of Justice Automatic Data Processing Center, Washington, D.C.;

Oakley H. Saunders, M.D. - pediatrician and former president of Provident Hospital Medical Staff;

Edward Truesdale, ex-offender and currently Land Bank Tenant Advisor for S.E.C.O.;

WO-BE-CO (Women Behind the Community). A civic organization which promotes public service to the Baltimore community and

Lawrence Zollicoffer, M.D. (posthumous), and co-founder of Garwyn Medical Center and physician at the clinic of the provident - Druid program)

Johnnie Mae Thompson, community activists)

Esther Redd, community activists, and Sampson Green Jr., Department of Social Services and vice president of Prison Alternatives Council.

A special introduction Theodore Thornton, state secretary of Seventh Conclave, the program, Thornton said he was more than favorably inspired and impressed with the caliber of leadership and high standards of these Baltimoreans as indicated through their lives and accomplishments.

The informal but bracious atmosphere of the Hollyday Room and adjoining terrace served to enhance the good vibrations shared by those in attendance during the preceremony re ception which included wine, chee. hot hors d'oeuvres and music.

Many of Baltimore's ck elected officials and political hopefuls also attended including John Douglas, delegate and candidate for comptroller; Delegates Pete Rawlings and Walter Dean; City Councilman Michael Mitchell) Kwies; Mfume candidate fo le City Council, 4th District, Earl Banks, Norman Reeves and Anthony Robinson, all candidate for City Council from the 8th district.

COMMUNITY SERVICE — The Rev. Wendell H. Phillips presents an award to Marian Scarborough, president of WO-BE-CO (Women Behind the Community) for the organization's continued community service for the last 12 years. Members from left are Eugenia Britt, Joan Case, Cardrienne Griffin, Clara Bailey, Reginia Bernard and Gwendolyn Howard.

—1500 attend

(Continued from Page 18)

Other activities held at the convention were educational workshops and open air services. Church reporters and representatives attending were Mesdames M. Byrd, Evelyn Fonville, Betty Johnson, Deborah Crawford, Janice Riggs, Vivian E. Purdie, Yvonne Garrett, Geraldine Paige, Carolyn Bigham, Hazel Marsh, Arlene Woodie, Linda M. Pearson.

Mesdames Dale Seals, Loretta Elie, Booker T. Johnson Jr., Denvil Sutton, Shirley Dantzler, Elaine Robinson, Tyrone Smith, Evelyn Rivers; Sylvia L. Corley, Joanna Tate, Jessie Clark, Janet Wayman, Louise Palmer, Samuel Plarisee, Kendall Hamilton, Barbara Horsey, Eugenia Taylor, Brenda Beasley, Carrie Davis, Virginia Ballard, Ann McKoy, Ira Williams, David Vandross, Conchita Villeras, F. Baise, Janet Wayman.

MSU alumni honors faculty task force

The Alumni Association of Morgan State University awarded a Special Contribution Award to the University's Faculty Task Force at the alumni dinner/dance recently held in the McKeldin Center.

The award was presented to Dr. Iva G. Jones, English professor and chairperson of the Task Force, for its response to the Sunapper's eight-part editorial series, "Higher Education Mess," printed in the Morning Sun Dec. 17, 1978, through Dec. 24, 1978.

The Faculty Task Force responfe challenged the Sunpaper's statements concerning Morgan State University with historical data and has been published in the pamphlet form.

Members of the Faculty Task Force were Robert M. Dixon, assistant to the vice president for academic affairs and professor of physics; Homer E. Favor, dean of the School of Urban Studies and Human Development and professor of economics;

Also, Walter M. Fisher, history professor; Patricia E. R. Low, assistant professor of comprehensive science and science education; Jesse N. McDade, philosophy professor; H. Florine Williams, associate director of library science, and Roger K. Williams, professor of psychology.

Copies of the "Response of the Faculty Task Force of Morgan State University to the Sun's Editorial Series: 'Higher Education Mess, I-VIII'" are available upon request.

Call 444-3022 for information.

Baltimoreans attend health symposium

Provident Hospital president Thomas W. Chapman and Dr. Wayne Kong, director of contracts and grants development, recently attended the White House Symposium of the Black Health Providers Task Force on High Blood Pressure Education and Control.

The symposium was hosted by the White House and the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of Health.

The sessions and workshops were conducted at HEW North, 330 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. with the final session held in the Old Executive Office Building, 17th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington.

Provident Hospital recently celebrated 85 years of health care services to the Baltimore community.

Judge Baylor completes judicial education session

Judge Solomon Baylor, associate judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, received a certificate of completion at the graduation of the General Jurisdiction — General Session, conducted by The National Judicial College at the University of Nevada in Reno.

The General Jurisdiction — General Session provided judges with intensive study of judicial processes and an update of recent legal developments.

Topics explored during the session included jury, judicial problems, court administration, criminal law, civil law, family law, inherent powers, sentencing, judicial discretion, communications skills and techniques and the courts and the community.

Participants in the College's programs utilize many adult learning tools, including problem solving and small group discussions, role playing, mock trials, and videotaping with analysis of the taped sequences.

Interaction with judges from other areas of the country is stressed in the education and training programs of the College. Eighty-two judges from 30 states and Puerto Rico attended this session.

Graduation ceremonies were highlighted by the presentation of the Robert Houghwou Jackson Lecture, delivered by Professor Carl Baar of Brock University, located in St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada.

Solomon Baylor

The all-volunteer faculty of The National Judicial College is composed of judges, lawyers, professors, and experts in many related fields.

Judge Ernst John Watts is dean of The National Judicial College, a non-profit Nevada corporation affiliated with the American Bar Association. The Judicial College is in its 16th year of providing continuing career judicial education and training for the nation's judiciary.

Mrs. 'Fannie' White was a school teacher

Funeral services for Mrs. Frances "Fannie" Turner White will be held July 28, noon at Herbert Nutter Funeral Home. The family will receive friends at 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Turner died July 25 at Lutheran Hospital. She was a retired Douglass High School teacher and also taught at Dunbar High. Mrs. Turner graduated from New York University in 1930 and received her master's degree from New York University in 1935.

She is survived by five cousins, Mesdames Alice Chiles Williams, Martha C. Darden, Ruth A. Chiles, Charlotte Nash, Fannie C. Jackson and Audrey Saunders Randolph.

HCD reports on AFRO complaints

Miss Merida Goodman, Housing and Community Development reports the following action has been taken:

2212 Ashland — Vacant property needs cleaning and boarding - notice on property, 6 - 28 - 79; work order to be issued.

2638 Garrett Avenue — High grass and trash in yard - City owned property; scheduled for rehabilitation in July.

1900 Block N. Monford — Concern about vacant - 1943; work order issued 7-6 to clean and board.

2024 Etting Street — Vacant, needs cleaning and boarded - Work order has been issued and is pending.

2200 Block Druid Hill Avenue

2219, 21, 25. Vacant needs cleaning; 2219; work order reinstated 7-10, 2221; issued notice 7-17-79, 2225, under vacant building notice - boarded on inspection.

2217, 2219, 2225 - referred to Bertram Berman, Supervisor of Sidewalk Division.

200 Druid Hill Avenue — Vacant needs cleaning and boarding - property clean and boarded on inspection; owned by railroad.

900 Block of N. Carey

208, -10, -16: Vacant need clean and boarding - confirm ownership; request work order to clean and board, 235; Yard needs cleaning - building open; work order to be issued after ownership is verified. 224: Window in third floor - falling; back yard needs cleaning - a five day final notice was issued 7-3 work order to follow.

300 Block N. Carey Street

305: Found high grass - weeds, debris on inspection 7 - 17; issued notice, 308: Confirming ownership; will issue work order.

2107, 2143 Mt. Holly Street — Properties reported to be vacant - properties were not vacant on inspection 7 - 19 - 79, grass cut at 2107.

1100 Block Argyle Street; 1135, 1140, 1142: Vacant reported open, 1135: work order issued 7-11 to clean and board, 1140, 1142: under vacant building notice 6 - 19.

2800 Block Flora Street vacant open, 2630 - 32: City owned properties - issued work orders 7 - 18

Christian Community Church of God
2701 W. Baltimore Street
SUNDAY, JULY 29, 1979

ELDER GREEN

3:30 P.M.—Elder C. Green.
Choirs and Congregation will worship with the Southern Baptist Church, 1701 N. Chester Street, Rev. Nathaniel Higgs, Pastor

7:00 P.M.—The climax of Part I of the Great Golden Jubilee Anniversary of The Christian Community Church of God and its founder and Pastor, Elder Conway Green.

Elder C. Green, Founder and Pastor

Elder C. Green can be heard each Sunday morning from 10:30 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. over station W.S.I.D.

St. James
Episcopal Church
Lafayette Square
Baltimore, Maryland

8:00 A.M. Holy Communion
9:00 A.M. Church School
10:30 A.M. Choral Eucharist Sermon
The Rev. Donald O. Wilson, Rector
Mr. A. Maurice Murphy, Organist
The Public Is Cordially Invited To Attend

PENNSYLVANIA AVE. AME ZION CHURCH
"The Church of the Burning Heart"
SUNDAY, JULY 29, 1979
11:00 A.M. Worship
Sermon: By Dr. Marshall H. Strickland
Theme: "The Virtue God Found in a Thief"
Music By:
Men's and Women's Choir
1:30 P.M.—Buses will leave for Morris Chapel Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Penna.

DOUGLAS MEMORIAL COMMUNITY CHURCH
"The People of the Way"
Lafayette and Madison Aves.
MARION CURTIS GASCON, D.D. Minister
James E. Hammond

Sunday, July 29, 1979
Eight and Eleven O'Clock
Guest Preacher:
Rev. Dr. Quincy D. Cooper
Director, Christian Center, Morgan State University
"The Quest for Salvation"

In Thee, O Lord — F. J. Haydn
Where Shall I Go? — John W. Work, arr.
Greater Love Hath No Man — John Ireland
Ain'a That Good News! — William Dawson, arr.

75 YEARS
A LIGHT HOUSE UPON THIS ROCK
1904 1979
FULTON BAPTIST CHURCH
1624-30 W. North Avenue
75th Anniversary
RALLY DAY
SUNDAY,
JULY 29, 1979
11:00 A.M.—Sermon by Pastor Wilson
Music:
75 Voice Anniversary Choir
3:00 P.M.—Special Combined Service
RALLY DAY
VIRGINIA DAY
Guest:
Manassa Hill Baptist Church
Amelia, Virginia
Sermon by Pastor:
Rev. Clarence Turner
Music by Guest Choir
Mrs. Mabel S. Gee:
Chr. Program Committee
Deacon James W. Johnson, Jr.:
Chr. Anniversary Committee
REV. DOUGLAS WILSON, D.D.: Pastor

PERKINS SQUARE BAPTIST CHURCH
2300 EDMONDSON AVE., CORNER OF WARWICK
JULY 29, 1979
MISSIONARIES
and GOLDEN AGE DAY
8:00 A.M.—Early Morning Worship
Sermon by the Pastor
9:15 A.M.—Church School
and New Members Class
10:20 A.M.—Open Heart Service
11:00 A.M.—Morning Worship
Sermon by Pastor
5:00 P.M.—HTU and Arx
Members Class
Church Social Night.
All Are Welcome
REV. RICHARD H. OGLETIV, Pastor

REV. RICHARD H. OGLETIV

SHARP ST. MEMORIAL
UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
SUNDAY, JULY 29, 1979
9:30 A.M.—Church School
10:00 A.M.—Morning Worship.
ALL ARE WELCOME
Rev. John W. Coleman, Minister
Rev. Arthur White, Assistant Minister

CHOIR ROBES
WE FEATURE BEAUTIFUL ROBES IN ALL THE NEWEST STYLES
NEW WONDER FABRICS OF 100% DACRON POLYESTER
WIDE SELECTION OF COLORS
MAIL AND PHONE ORDERS FILLED EASY CREDIT
QUANTITY DISCOUNTS
• WASHABLE • DURABLE
• CREASE AND WRINKLE RESISTANT
BACHMAN TAILORING COMPANY
223 W. SARATOGA ST.
PULPIT ROBES
CHOIR SUPPLIES
Baltimore, Maryland
752-2187
SECOND FLOOR
Mail and Phone Orders Gladly Filled

Prompt, Efficient, Considerate Service
VERNON R. BAILEY
Successor to
George G. Kelson Funeral Home
1346-48-50 N. Calhoun St.
669-7585 523-1520

NUTTER
Funeral Home
3035-37 W. NORTH AVE.
WI. 7-6655 WI. 7-7618
"A SERVICE WHICH INSPIRES CONFIDENCE"