

tridge, quail, woodcock, or raccoon killed, trapped, taken, bought, sold or had in possession; or had in possession for the purpose of export from Harford County, or transported, bought, or sold for export, or exported or carried out of said County; in violation of any of the provisions of the aforesaid Sections; and in default of payment of such fine, said person or persons or officer or officers of a corporation violating said provisions or any of them, shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction or County Jail for a period of not less than twenty days nor more than thirty days, or until the fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 44. Any person found trespassing with dog, gun or trap upon any private property in said County, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of said Harford County, shall be fined five dollars and costs for each offense; and upon failure to pay said fine and costs, shall be confined in the House of Correction or County Jail for a term of not less than five days nor more than fifteen days, or until the fine and costs are paid.

SEC. 44-A. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to hunt, catch, pursue, injure, trap or shoot any rabbit, jack-rabbit, cotton-tail, partridge, quail, squirrel, muskrat, skunk, woodcock, reedbird, railbird, blackbird, sora, wild duck, wild goose or swan in said County, without first having obtained from one of the Justices of the Peace of Harford County a license permitting the person named therein to so shoot, take, catch, kill, pursue, injure, trap, or shoot any of the above-named birds or animals, which license shall state the name of the applicant, his age, color, color of hair, height, occupation and residence, and shall not be transferable; and all licenses so issued shall date from the time so issued until the first day of June next following the date of the issue of such license. The cost of said license to be as follows: A bona-fide resident of said County shall pay to said Justice of the Peace the sum of one dollar and a fee of fifteen cents for the issuance of such license; a non-resident of Harford County shall pay to the said Justice of the Peace the sum of five dollars and a fee of fifteen cents for the issuance of such license; provided the Justice of the Peace aforesaid shall in no case issue a license to any one under fifteen years of age. The amounts received by the Justices of the Peace for the issuance of said licenses, except their fee of fifteen cents in each case, shall be paid over by them to the Chief Game Warden of Harford County, whose appointment and qualifications are hereinafter provided for in