

CHAP. 124. land through which the said road may pass, shall require the same, or if the said owner or owners be under age, or feme covert, the said commissssioners shall apply to a justice of the peace of the county wherein the said lands lie, to summon a jury of at least twelve freeholders, to assess the damages done to the said lands, which jury shall be sworn, and return their inquest in the usual mode now required by law.

Oath required SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, before they proceed to act, shall take an oath or affirmation before some justice of the peace, that they will without favor, partiality or prejudice assess the damages sustained by the persons through whose lands the said road may pass.

Superintendence SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That after the said road shall be surveyed and located, the opening thereof shall be superintended in each county respectively by the commissioners, or a majority of them, appointed for said counties.

Account of expenses SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby required to make out upon oath or affirmation, an account of the expenses of surveying and opening said road, including an allowance of two dollars per day to the commissioners for their services, and the levy court of said counties are hereby authorized and required to levy the same on the assessable property of said county, to be collected as other county charges are.

Limitation SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the expenses of said road shall not exceed, to Anne Arundel county, including the per diem of the commissioners, the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, nor to Montgomery county, including as aforesaid the sum of one hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 124.

Passed Mar. 6, 1837. An act to Divorce Eliza Ann Boyd, of Kent County, from her husband James Boyd.

Divorce Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Eliza Ann Boyd, of Kent county, be and she is hereby divorced from her husband James Boyd; and