

CHAP. §11. visions of said act, to which this is a supplement, shall be recoverable before the Burgess of Middletown, or before any justice of the peace of Frederick county, in the same manner as small debts are recoverable out of court, and that payment thereof may be enforced in like manner as in cases of judgments rendered by a justice of the peace.

Vacancy of collector

SEC. 3 And be it enacted, That in case of the death, refusal to act, disqualification, resignation or removal out of the said town, of any collector appointed under the provisions of the twelfth section of the act to which this is a supplement, the burgess and commissioners of Middletown, shall have power at any time, and from time to time to appoint another in his stead, and that in case of the absence or other inability to act of the collector for the time being, the burgess may direct any precept by him issued, to any constable residing in the said town, whose duty it shall be to serve the same, and make return thereof, in the same manner as constables are bound by law to serve and return process issued by justices of the peace.

Or absence, &c.
