

CHAP. 209.

CHAPTER 209.

Enacted Feb 24, 1830 An act to continue an act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirteen, entitled, an act to incorporate the Patapsco Insurance Company.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the stockholders of the Patapsco Insurance Company have prayed that the act by which they were incorporated, entitled, "an act to incorporate the Patapsco Insurance Company," passed at December session, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, which by its own limitation would expire at the end of the present session of Assembly, may be continued for a further term, to enable them to wind up and settle the concerns of said Company; Therefore,

Chapter extended.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled, an act to incorporate the Patapsco Insurance Company, be, and the same is hereby continued, and shall be and remain in full force until the first day of February, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-six; Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained, shall be construed to authorize said company to make insurances upon vessels or merchandise at sea, or going to sea, or upon any goods, wares, or merchandise, freights or other property, going or gone by land or water, or to lend money on bottomry and respondentia.

Enacted.

CHAPTER 210.

Enacted Feb 23, 1830 An act to perfect and make valid, the title of Isaac S. Swearingen, of Washington county, to the lands therein mentioned.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it hath been represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Isaac S. Swearingen, of Washington county, that a judgment was obtained in Washington county court by John McClain and James McClain, against Robert T. Friend, at March term, eighteen hundred and twenty, which judgment was superseded by Daniel Malott and James Amos; that a writ of fieri facias issued out of said court on said judgment, directed to Thomas Post, then sheriff of said county, who levied the same on a parcel of land of which the said Robert T. Friend, was seized in fee, consisting of parts of two tracts of land, to wit: part of a tract called 'Dear Bargain,' and part of a tract called 'Sweeds Delight' adjoining each other, and also adjoining the town of Williamsport, in said county, on which was erected a frame house and brick shop, containing between four and five acres, and called in the will of Jacob Friend late of said county, deceased, 'Warleys lot,' under which will, the said Robert T. Friend derives his title to said
