Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier honored

An Appreciatio Dinner honroing a very much loved woman, created the perfect opportunity for so many gueyos to thank Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier for meaningfully touching so many lives. The Order of Daughters of Sphinx, Queen of Sheba Court, (A.A.O.D.S.) Hiram Grand Lodge Affiliation, A.F. & A.M. sponsored this affair.

The Dinner held at Holiday Inn, Downtown, Thursday, August 23, 1979 saw the main ballroom filled to capacity. Mrs. Beatrice Williams served as Mistress of Ceremony. The speakers represented Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier's family, church, fraternal and civic organizations, past employers, former students, her Sorority and friends.

RECENTLY HONORED — Mrs. Mary Clayton Frazier honored recently at an Appreciation Dinner at the Holiday Inn Downtown, sponsored by the Order of Daughters of Sphix, Queen of Sheba Court, (A.A.O.D.S.) Hiram Grand Lodge Affiliation, A.F. & A.M.

Mrs. Frazier has continually been a faithful worker in many vital capacities. She has served over 50 years as Church Clerk at New Shiloh Baptist Church.

While holding a full time job as stenographer with the Department of Education, she earned a B.S. Degree with honors from Howard University; a Master's Degree from Howard University and a second Master's Degree from Loyola College. There she captured the distinctio of being the first black to earn a higher degree from that college.

A degree from New York University and studies at the John Hopkins University are also among her educational accomplishments. In her educational and employment situation, she grew in service with the Department of Education of Baltimore City from Senior Stenographer to Teacher; to Business Education Department Head; to Special Assistant at the Central Office Headquarters; to Education Specialist in Personnel.

She is a member of Alpha Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., where she has served in many official stations. She is Past President of the Howard University Alumni Association, Baltimore Chapter. She was the dynamic Most Worthy Grand Matron of Queen of Sheba Court of Daughters of Sphinx for over thirty-five years.

She is Worthy Matron of Clayton Memorial Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. (This is the Chapter named in honor of her father, Brother Isaiah Clayton, who was the Grand Worthy Patron of the Naomi Grand Chapter at the time of his death.)

She serves as Grand Secretary of the Naomi Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Supreme Recording Secretary of three Supreme Departments that has headquarters in three localities: Austin, Texas; New Orleans, Louisiana; and Hampton, Virginia.

She is the presiding officer over the Eastern Coast Assembly—comprising of the following states: Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Maryland; Virginia; District of Columbia, and Pennsylvania. She also served under Dr. Carrington L. Davis at the Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School.

The significant thing about the honoree is that she was able—through persistent efforts, sacrifices, dedication, and loyalty—to continue to work every day while she completed her entire educational career, with such great success.

Each speaker at the Appreciation Dinner extolled Mrs. Frazier to the highest. Words seemed too limited that told of her guidance, dedication and generosity that all felt toward the honoree of the evening. Many gives and tokens of appreciation were gratefully receibed by the honoree.

The speakers at the program and the guests at the head table were:

1. The Rev. Dr. Harold A. Carter and his wife, Dr. Weptonomah W. Carter of Shiloh Baptist Church. She spoke about her wonderful work at Church Clerk and many other capacities in the church.

2. Mrs. Edna O. Campbell (Retired) Principal of Frederick Douglass High School. She was the speaker concerning the splendid service rendered by the honoree at the school (her Alma Mater)

3. Mr. William Allen of the Superior Court of Baltimore City. He was the speaker on Mrs. Frazier As a Guide for Young People.

4. Mr. William C. McClean and his wife, Mrs. Ritty McClean. He spoke concerning the outstanding work that Mrs. Frazier rendered when she was connected with the Central Office of the Dept. of Education.

Also at the Head table were and spoke in connection with the honoree were:

Soror Sandra East, Basileus—Alpha Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. Mrs. Mary Frazier as a member and officer.

Dr. Roland B. Williams, President, Baltimore Chapter, Howard University Alumni Association.

Miss Ruth E. Clayton, who spoke in Mrs. Frazier as a family member.

Representatives from the Department of Education Secretarial Staff. Salutes from the Masonic-Eastern Star Family were given by:

Mrs. Helen Carter, Grand Worthy Matron, Naomi Grand Chapter Noble Columbus McNeil, 33—Imperial Grand Potentate A.A.O.N.M.S. Hon. Clarence Wycoff, 33 —Most Puissant Sovereign Grand Commander. The United Supreme Council, and wife, Mrs. Fannie Wycoff.

Miss Helen V. Benton and Hon. John V. Thornton, Supreme Deputies.

Mrs. Helen Drummond, Most Worthy Grand Matron.

Mrs. Thelma Betts was the soloist. She is an outstanding soloist at the Shiloh Baptist Church.

Closing Prayer was given by the Pastor of Mrs. Frazier's church—Dr. Harold A. Carter. Mrs. Carrie Perry also sang a solo.

The Committee for the occasion consisted of: Dgt. Helen M. Carter, Ruth E. Clayton, Dorothy Lee, Gladys Murphy, Carrie E. Perry, Shirley Plater, Lina Toyer, and Shirley Atherton, who served as Chairperson.

The hostesses were: Dgts. Eva Blackwell, Ola Carver, Fannie Cole, Odessa Garrett, Mary Giles, Mazola Goode, Ethel Harrell, Harriet Harris, Mary L. Johnson, Myrtle Jones, Anne Lee, Beatrice Lee, Ruby Lee, Dorothy McNeil, Joyce Owens, Hattie Reynolds, Phyllis Ward.

Mrs. Dorothy Lee gave the Occasion and Rev. Lillian King gave the invocation. The Blessing was given by Rev. Wyatt Brown.
