Unemployed People Are Worth A Fortune.

Unemployment among blacks is the highest in the nation. It creates poverty and despair. But within this poverty we can find wealth. Heritage and training and education we can provide real hope for people to meet the challenges of tomorrow, today.

Opportunities Industrialization Center of America, Inc. (OIC) is an organization dedicated to solving these problems of underemployment, poor training and placement. Since 1971, Gulf Oil Corporation has been a partner with OIC in training companies to qualify for careers in fields ranging from technical to managerial. With Gulf and we are getting people not only trained, but hired. In Pittsburgh, OIC placed Scottie Trammel as a Field Technician with Gulf. And in Houston, Gulf hired Ruby Lee as a Data Machine Keypunch Operator upon completion of her OIC training.

With companies like Gulf and OIC working together, many more such people will be trained and employed. And a lot less employment applications will be rejected.

OIC offers real faith and hope. To give people the chance to discover their talents and reach these goals. Together we can keep on seeking, educating and training America's greatest resource. Human Energy. It's worth a fortune.
