

CHAP. 186. ton, for Cecil county, under the direction of James Sewall, John Evans, and Levin Gale; at Chester Town, for Kent county, under the direction of Ezekiel F. Chambers, Joseph Wickes, and James Alfred Pearce; at Easton, for Talbot county, under the direction of John Goldsborough, Edward Lloyd, and Samuel Stevens; at Denton, for Caroline county, under the direction of James Sangston, George Reed, and Thomas Burchenal; at Cambridge, for Dorchester county, under the direction of Henry Page, Josiah Bailey, and John N. Steele; at Centreville, for Queen Ann's county, under the direction of William Grason, Thomas Emory, and Richard T. Earle; at Princess Ann, for Somerset county, under the direction of Littleton P. Dennis, William W. Handy, and Thomas King Carroll; at Snow Hill, for Worcester county, under the direction of Ephraim King Wilson, John S. Spence, and George W. Purnell; at Upper Marlborough, for Prince George's county, under the direction of Robert W. Bowie, Philemon Chew, and C. C. Magruder; at Leonard Town, for St. Mary's county, under the direction of James Thomas, E. J. Millard, and G. N. Causin; at Port Tobacco, for Charles county, under the direction of William Thompson, William D. Merrick, and Henry Brawner; at Rockville, for Montgomery county, under the direction of Benjamin S. Forrest, Roger Brooke, and Brice Selby; at Prince Frederick, for Calvert county, under the direction of Alexander Somerville, James Kent, and Samuel Turner.

Time of opening books.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners authorised by this act to receive subscriptions in the city of Baltimore, or a majority of them, shall meet to determine on the time and manner of receiving the subscriptions to the capital stock of said company; which shall be within ninety days after the passage of this act; they shall provide suitable books for receiving the subscriptions and furnish such as are necessary to the commissioners appointed for the different counties, and notify them of the time and manner determined on for receiving the subscriptions, and the period for which the books shall be kept open; on closing the said books in the several counties, the commissioners or commissioner having charge of the same, shall certify the result and send their certificate with the books of subscriptions and the funds received, to the commissioners acting for Baltimore city and county; and if it shall appear that not less than three thousand shares in the whole, have been subscribed, and the first instalment required to be paid by this act, has been duly paid thereon,

Notification thereof.

Certificate of result.