

cattle, shall pass therewith, along, or over any private passage, or other ground, which shall or may be opened, adjoining to, or near the turnpike gate, upon the said road, either where it is now located, or may be hereafter located, so as to get upon the said turnpike road without passing through the toll gate, with intent to avoid the payment of toll, or in passing from the said turnpike road without passing through the toll gate with the said intent; all and every person or persons, in either of the ways aforesaid offending, shall, for every such offence respectively, forfeit and pay to the President and Managers, elected by said Banks and individual stockholders, to manage their said road and bridge, any sum not exceeding five dollars, to be sued for and recovered with costs of suit, before any Justice of the Peace, in like manner as debts of a small amount, may be sued for, and recovered in the name and upon the conditions as prescribed in the first section of the supplement to the act to which this is a supplement, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter one hundred and nineteen.

CHAP. 246.

To avoid payment

Penalty.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this law, and every matter and thing therein contained, shall be at all times subject to repeal or amendment by the General Assembly.

Right to repeal or amend.

CHAPTER 246.

An act to Incorporate certain Trustees to establish an Academy or School House, in or near Prince Frederick town in Calvert county, to be known by the name and style of the Prince Frederick Town Academy.

Passed Mar. 16, 1833

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General of Assembly Maryland, That Richard Roberts, Franklin Smith, James Morsell, jr. James B. Dixon, Thomas Mitchell, William Hance, Samuel Turner, Alexander Somerville, John J. Brookes, John Becket, Samuel Chew, and George W. Weems, Esqrs. be, and they are hereby appointed trustees of the Prince Frederick Town Academy, and the said trustees and their successors to be elected in the manner hereinafter mentioned, shall be one community and body politic, with perpetual succession in fact and law to all intents and purposes connected with the institution by the name and style of the trustees of the Prince Frederick Town Academy, in Calvert county, by which name and title the said

Persons incorporated.

Name and style.