

CHAPTER 6.

CHAPTER 6.

Passed Jan. 16, 1833 An act, entitled, a supplement to an act, entitled, an act to incorporate the Presbyterian Church in Salisbury, in Worcester county, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and two.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, no election hath ever been held according to the second section of an act, passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and two to which this is a supplement; And whereas, doubts are entertained whether any acts done by the committee of the Presbyterian Church in Salisbury in Worcester county, therein named, in consequence thereof, are valid,—Therefore,

Act of 1830 revived—proceedings confirmed.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an act passed at December session eighteen hundred and thirty, to which this is a supplement, be, and the same is hereby revived and perpetuated, and that all acts and deeds of the committee of the Presbyterian Church, in Salisbury in Worcester county, in virtue of their incorporation, and which are not inconsistent with the laws or constitutions of this State, or the United States, be, and they are hereby made good and valid in law, and that all deeds of bargain and sale, or leases or releases, given to said committee, or to any person or persons in trust for said church, for any interest or estate, in any lands or tenements, or personal property, be, and they are hereby made valid and effectual in law, to transfer the same interest or estate, and the same interest or estate is hereby vested in the said committee and their successors forever, for the use of the Presbyterian Church, in Salisbury in Worcester county.

Election of Committee.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the election of the successors of the said committee and all the powers, privileges and successions of said committee, shall be according to the provisions contained in the original act to which this is a supplement, only that the first election shall be sometime during the month of May, eighteen hundred and thirty three, and sometime during each and every succeeding May; Provided, that the said committee, or a majority of them, mentioned in the act to which this is a supplement, shall continue to act until they shall be superseded by the election of a new committee.

Proviso.

Preamble.

And whereas, the members of the Presbyterian Church at Rochawalking in Somerset county, and the members of the
