The Anna Mae Hunter Foundation, Inc.
(Home For The Blind)
1321 Eutaw Place Baltimore, Md. 21217
MABLE WATERS CONTINUE THE GOOD WORK
Six months ago the citizens of Baltimore were grieved at the demise of Mrs. Anne Mae Hunter, the founder of the Anna Mae Hunter (Home For the Blind) foundation. As Mrs. Hunter's health failed, she was able to get Mrs. Mable Waters to come to the rescue of the floundering home. Mrs. Waters' concern for the poor and handicapped, and her skill has saved the floundering home. Her dedication to the cause made it possible for Mrs. Hunters dream to continue.

From the Trustee Board
We wish to do two things:
No. 1— Thank the many friends and supporters of the Foundation for their prayers and their continued support.
No. 2—Salute Mrs. Mable Waters for a job well done.

Jesus said, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

IF YOU HEAR THE VOICE
If you hear the voice that appeals to you above other voices that you hear too; that challenges you to disregard the noise of what seems to be a wise choice; that demands your thoughts the whole year long; and keeps in your heart a joyous song; the old, old song the angels sang: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men, "Hallelujah, you have a Merry Christmas.
