

(41) To the devise and bequest contained in the last will and testament of Charlotte A. Smith, late of Baltimore County, deceased, to or for the benefit of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church, said devise and bequest being limited to take effect after the death of the survivor of the said testatrix's two sisters, Harriest J. Smith and Elizabeth W. Smith, and after the death of a certain Bridget Queeney.

(42) To the devise and bequest contained in the last will and testament of Harriet J. Smith, late of Baltimore County, deceased, admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore County on or about the 9th day of February, 1909, to or for the benefit of the Executive Committee of Ministerial Education and Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, a corporation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Kentucky, said corporation now being known as the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, said bequest being limited to take effect after the death of the said testatrix's sister, Elizabeth W. Smith.

(43) To the devise and bequest contained in the last will and testament of Elizabeth W. Smith, late of Baltimore City, deceased, admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City, in or about the month of September, 1920, to or for the benefit of the Govanstown Presbyterian Congregation in the county of Baltimore, a body corporate, incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland.

(44) To the devises and bequests of Benjamin F. Bennett as contained in his last will and testament, dated March 13th, 1913, and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills of Baltimore City, in Liber H. W. J. No. 115, folio 348, as follows:

(a) To the Home Missionary Society and to the Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Baltimore City, five hundred dollars each;

(b) To the Preachers' Aid Society and to the Relief Fund of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, five hundred dollars each;

(c) To the Home for the Aged of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Baltimore, the sum of two thousand dollars;

(d) The income from ten thousand dollars for a period of ten years to the Bennett Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church