

as security for the performance of the contract or to be applied to payments upon such contract when due, such money, with interest accruing thereon, if any, until repaid or so applied shall continue to be the money of the person making such deposit or advance and shall be considered a trust fund in possession of the person with whom such deposit or advance shall be made, and shall be deposited in a bank or trust company by the person receiving the same, and shall not be commingled with said person's other funds or become an asset of such person or trustee, and the person so paying the same shall be notified by the bank or trust company in which said funds are deposited.

SEC. 2. That no waiver of the provisions of Section 1 shall be made so as to evade the provisions of said Section 1 and any such waiver if so made, shall be considered null and void.

Approved April 13th, 1922.

CHAPTER 478.

AN ACT to amend the Act entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Preachers Aid Society of Baltimore," passed January 27th, 1827; being Chapter 40 of the Laws of Maryland of 1826, and the re-affirmation of said Act passed at the January Session of the Legislature of 1858, being Chapter 11 of the Laws of 1858.

WHEREAS, Samuel Harden, William Wilkins, Thomas E. Bond, Philip Littig, Andrew Adgate, Thomas Armstrong, Fielder Israel, Christian Keener, James Brundige, Alexander Russell, William M'Konkey, Jr., Thomas Kelso, Robert Armstrong, Jacob Rogers, George Ernest and John Berry, members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the City of Baltimore, and others, have formed themselves into a Society for the laudable purpose of affording relief to the itinerant ministers of the said church, their wives, widows and children for the education of the latter, and have prayed for an act of incorporation, that they may be better enabled to carry such their purposes into effect; and the General Assembly of Maryland being desirous of promoting such institution; therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Harden, William Wilkins, Thomas E. Bond,