Mrs. Marie Snowden reaches century mark

CENTURION — Mrs. Marie Snowden, age 100, gets a buss from Stacy Jones, age 6 at Mrs. Snowden's recent birthday party.

Overjoyed, the lady cried, "I didn't realize that anyone loved me this much. I didn't know I would have such a lovely time."

The lady expressing these sentiments was Mrs. Marie Snowden who recently celebrated her 100th birthday at a party given in her honor by her friend and hostess, Mrs. Annie Owens of the 4700 block of Park Hgts. Ave.

Basking in the warmth and love surrounding her and enjoying a feast of soul food, birthday cake, ice cream, punch and eggnog, along with her friends who came to wish her well and to gift her with many lovely things, Mrs. Snowden did not look her age.

According to Mrs. Owens, who found the honoree at the Seton Hill Manor Nursing Home (where Mrs. Owens worked until 3 years ago), the centurian does not act her age either.

Mrs. Owens, who brought Mrs. Snowden home to live with her when she ended her employ with the nursing home, says the birthday lady is agile, mentally alert and loads of fun.

Born and reared in Baltimore, (on George St.) Mrs. Snowden worked until she was 75 years old.

At 100, she moves easily, cleans her own room, can do other light household chores, despite stroke she suffered a few years ago, has an excellent appetite and can eat any type of food without ill effects and can dance.

Mrs. Snowden belongs to the Waxter Center and each Wednesday a missionary visits her at home to avail her of religious services. What more can you ask them to be so alive at age 100?

County's DEA assisting in rent rebates

According to Montgomery County's Division of Elder Affairs, DEA, several hundred of the county's elderly tenants who lived in subsidized housing between Feb. 1, 1975 and Sept. 30, 1977, may not realize they are eligible for a substantial HUD rent rebate.

The deadline for filing claims for the refunds, due all low - rent tenants of HUD Section 236 apartments is Jan. 31. The federal government owes the refunds nationally to an estimated 750,000 tenants under a $60 million settlement won on behalf of tenants in a federally subsidized housing program. The refunds, averaging about $500, represent rent overcharges.

The problem stemmed from HUD granting rent increases to landlords in 1974 without providing for accompanying subsidies. This meant that low - income tenants were paying more than 30 percent of their income during the 33 month period. Those tenants are now eligible for the refund.

Any elegible Montgomery County resident 60 years of age or older who needs help in filling out the necessary claim form, should contact the DEA Paralegal Consultation Service, 468-4630, for an appointment.
