

Rainier shall submit the question of amending the said Charter to the qualified voters of said town at an election to be held in said town as hereinafter provided.

The date of said election shall be fixed by the Mayor and Council and notice thereof shall be given by advertisement in some newspaper published in Prince George's County once a week for two successive weeks prior to said election, and also by posting notices of such election at, at least, two places within the limits of each ward in said town.

The ballots shall be prepared as ballots are prepared for a general town election and shall have printed thereon the words:

"For amendment of charter" with a blank square opposite at the right of said words and immediately thereunder shall be the following words:

"Against amendment of charter" with a blank square opposite at the right of said words.

And in event that said election shall be held at the same time that the regular town election is held said words and blank squares shall be printed on the regular ballot for said election and the officials in charge of said regular election shall act as officials for this election and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are the votes for the regular election.

And in event that said election shall be held at some other time than a regular election, then the Mayor and Council shall appoint the necessary officers to conduct said election and said election and the count and canvass of said ballots shall be conducted as provided in the town charter for all general town elections.

And in event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

And in event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the amendment of said charter shall be in favor of amending said charter then this act shall be in full force and effect, but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the amendment of the charter, then the Mayor and Common Council may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the general town election held in said town in May, 1923, in the same method and manner as hereinbefore provided, and if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be "For amendment of charter," then this Act shall be in full force and
