Bush, Wood fill gap for Wade's Dunbar attack

By Samuel Davis and Mark Gail

When Dunbar lost her two 6-6 standouts, Barry Scott and Bryan Carver, along with 6-4 Marvin Raymond, there was question as to whether she could repeat the accomplishments of previous years.

Included in those feats were a 23-0 record for the 1978-79 season, an "A" conference title, the Public Schools Tournament championship and first place in the Washington Invitational Tournament.

The unbeaten mark has been stopped, as this year's squad lost to Springarn bystwo points. The Poets are on top in "A" Confersece, Division II with a 5-0 mark.

The Public Schools Tournament is still some weeks off, and according to coach Bob Wade, the winners of the Washington Invitational Tournament may not be invited back the next year.

The present Poet attack is reliant on a much smaller pair, Duane Wood and Kevin Bush, at 5-7 and 5-10.

"Usually we rely on our front court, but this year they are proving their worth," Wade asserts.

Bush and Wood have been playing together since age 10, starting with Project Survivial mentor Edgar Bell.

Over the summer, they teamed up to give Lafayette the BNBL 18-and-under title at its site.

"Having the two of them is like having a coach on the court," Wade says. "They try to do what we practice."

"Whenever the chips are down, the team looks to them. They are very unselfish, and outstanding leaders," he added.

Currently both are at about a 15-point per game pace, with Bush handing out about seven assists a contest.

Wood is giving up about five assists, and leading the conference with four steals a contest.

Not only are their personal statistics impressive, but the two are keeping the team in a well-balanced scoring groove.

Kenny Missouri, Wade's number three guard in his two-forward, three-guard set, is averaging 13 points a game.

Forwards Craig Tally and Kevin Woods are also averaging in the low double figures, while the team is shooting 77 points a contest.

"We try to control the game and do more offensively and defensively because we realize the team depends on us a lot," Bush said with Wood agreeing.

SEVEN CHANCES — New Baltimore Colts head coach Mike McCormack said Wednesday that he plans a 7-man staff of assistants when he takes over at training camp. This means he will have seven chances to desegregate the Baltimore football coaching staff (Mark Gail).

Bits O' Briefs

What is 'spread'?

Pittsburg Steeler guard Sam Davis insists that he has never bet on the outcome of a sporting event in his 13 years in the NFL, or, for that matter, in all his 35 years on earth.

Declaring, "I'm from a family of Baptists, "Davis says the 11 - point spread in favor of his team over the Rams Sunday, doesn't mean anything to him.

"The only spreads I know about are peanut butter and Jelly."

Noah nixed

Arthur Ashe protege Yannick Noah was eliminated from play in the first round of the Birmingham, Ala., International Indoor Tennis tournament on Tuesday.

Young Noah, discovered and sponsored by Ashe in Cameroon while on tour in Africa two years ago, lost to defending champion Jimmy Connors, 7 - 6, 6 - 4.

Some, not much

Black shares from the purse of last weekend's Bob Hope Desert Classic golf tournament were minimal.

Jim Thorpe of Falls Church, Va., pixked up $628 for his 358 card, and Calvin Peete was awarded $600 for his 359 over 90 holes. Winner of the event was Craig Stadler.

WE FUMBLED — The AFRO Sport Department fumbled last month when it pictorialized its All - City scholastic football team. Inadvertently left out of the layout was Tom Taylor of Northern High, regarded one of the MSA's top centers.

Rangers Essex youth

The Texas Rangers last weekend signed Daryl Smith of Baltimore to a farm club contract for a spring trial.

Smith, son of Mrs. Ruby Saunders of McLean Blvd., is a graduate of Northern High School now attending Essex Community College. He is a pitcher.

Gaines gains

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics named Reggie Gaines, a 6 -7 senior forward from Winston - Salem (N.C.), player of the week for his performance last week.

Gaines, a native of Wilmington, N.C., improved his season scoring average to 31.9 and increased his rebounding average to 13.8 in games against Livingston College and Shaw. In seven games this season Gaines has scored 30 or more points, leading the Rams to a 7 - 1 record.

Derby hopefuls at Bowie Sat.

BOWIE, Md., — Maryland - bred 3 - year - olds deterred from their first major opportunity of the 1980 season when the E. Palmer Heagerty was a victim of the Jan. 5 program will gear up for the $25,000 - added Prince George's Stakes at Bowie Tommorrow (Saturday).

The mile and a sixteenth test will have its 47th running and in the past provided the winner of the 1966 Kentucky Derby and Preakness in Kauai King.

Mrs. Ben CoHen's Royal Hierarchy, overnight choice for the postponed Heagerty, shapes up again as the likely Prince George's favorite in his first attempt around two turns.

Among the other likely candidates for the first money are S K S Stable's Georgeandthedragon, Mina Buchanan's Willie Heath, Gordon Grayson's Roanoke Rapids, F. A. Bonsal, Jr's Lively King, Alsquith Stable's Hurry Home Duc and C. Oliver Goldsmith's Ollie Baba
