

LITERARY INSTIT.

BALTIMORE FEMALE COLLEGE

53 SAINT PAUL STREET,

This Seminary of Learning, instituted for the liberal education of Young Ladies, was chartered by the Legislature of Maryland, in 1849, with authority to confer degrees, and was invested with all the rights and privileges of the most favored Institutions.

There are two departments in the College, the COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT and the PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT, with their appropriate branches of learning. The course of study in each is three years, designated by as many different classes.

The course of instruction is intended to develop the intellectual, social and moral faculties; and by imparting a thorough, practical, accomplished and Christian education, fit the pupil for the faithful discharge of the responsible duties that await her in life.

The College enjoys a patronage from Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana, Missouri, Ohio, Arkansas, and the District of Columbia.
