Beautiful Baltimore Brides

Miss Lillian C. Johnson marries Fernando G. Allen, musician

On Saturday, Jan. 26, Miss Lillian Chiffon Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson (Thomasine) of this city was married to Fernando Gerald Allen, son of Mrs. Thelma Allen, also of Baltimore.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Md., College Park, and is an Alcoholic Counselor for the division of Parole and Probation.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Towson State University and is a teacher with the Baltimore City Public Schools and the musician for St. Francis Catholic Church.

The lovely double - ring ceremony was held at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church at 4 p.m. with the Rev. Dr. Walter Thomas officiating. A capacity crowd attended.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Howard K. Johnson, was resplendent in a long, white organza gown, Old English style, with a capelet bodice trimmed with lace and lace at the cuffs. Her headpiece was a derby hat of lace, trimmed with seed pearls with netting on top and a fingertip veil of net.

She also wore a long train, of white organza, which started at the waist and flowed behind her. It too was trimmed with lace and seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations, daisies and white baby's breath, with a lighted candle in the middle and lace streamers attached.

Mrs. Theresa Patterson, matron of honor and Miss Kim Rankin, maid of honor wore ice - blue empire - styled long gowns with blue flowered capelets trimmed with blue lace. They carried bouquets of blue and gold carnations.

Flower girls, Keisha and Kenya Harris wore long blue dresses with flowered bodices and their hair was swept back and tied with blue lace.

Ring bearer Lamont Green wore a dark blue suit and light blue shirt.

Best man Kemmitt B. Scott, usher Jeffery D. Green and escort Arthur L. Harris wore ice - blue tuxedos with matching accessories.

The wedding was highlighted by the Fernando Allen Singers (the bridegroom's musical group) who sang several selections.

Among them were an original composition, by Mr. Allen, of 'The Lord's Prayer' his arrangement of 'The Greatest' by George Benson which was sung by Thomas Roberts and the music for the processional.

Especially touching also was 'Ave Maria' done by Ms. Alice DeShazo, organist. St. Francis and a reading on 'Marriage' from Cahill Gibran, done by Randolph Smith.

The couple received a standing ovation as they left the sanctuary.

Hostesses were Jeanette Weaver and Jackie Harrell. Hosts were Michael Allen, Michael Johnson, David Allen and Lamont Taylor.

Organist was William Sydnor. Pianist and conductor was James R. Peterson. Coordinating the wedding was Ernest P. Dorsey.

A reception immediately followed the ceremony in the parrish hall, with food catered by The Johnson Sisters.

WEDDING PARTY — Pictured immediately following their marriage at St. Francis Xavier Church, 1400 Caroline St. are the new Mr. and Mrs. Fernando G. Allen. Flanking them are Kemmit Scott, (L), best man and Miss Kim Rankin, (R), maid of honor.

Two Army Lts. wed

Army Lt. Priscilla Elizabeth McCaskill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ulis McCaskill, of Picayune, Mississippi, and Army Lt. Lloyd McKinley Alston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd M. Alston, Sr., of Baltimore, were married recently, at the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church in Picayune.

The Rev. Jesse James performed the ceremony. A reception was held in the church hall. The honor attendants were Pamela Johnson and Army Lt. Quanton Martin. Members of the bridegroom's family traveled to Mississippi for the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Military Academy at West Point. His father is the Assistant Superintendent of Adult and Community Education in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

The bride and bridegroom spent several days in New Orleans, Louisiana for their honeymoon.

The Kopelles, youth group of the sorority, under the direction of Mrs. Lenora J. Terrell and Mrs. Elaine Alexander epistoleus, gave a presentation of the poem, "Friendship" by Helen Steiner Rice. They also added a colorful note to the occasion as they were all decked out in the sorority's red and white.

Mrs. Marie Dowell, basileus, assisted by Miss E. Monterey Williams, presented the Founders' Day Awards.

Receiving awards were: Mrs. Arabella Ross, who got the "Meritorious Service" and the "Outstanding Iota Soror of the Year" awards. She was presented a silver loving cup and a citation.

Distinguished Service Keys' (along with citations) which went to sorors who had exemplified the ideals of the sorority in their lives and professions and as members of the sorority for 16 consecutive years, were received by: Mrs. Thelma Addison, Mrs. Ovella Queen, Mrs. Betty Shlton and Mrs. Louise Turks.

Mrs. Queen was also presented a money corsage (with dollar bills as the greenery) by her mother, Mrs. Olivia Bates. Mrs. Shelton received flowers from her family.

Certificate of Award also went to Mrs. Lenora Terrell, Youth Coordinator and Mrs. Elaine Alexander, assistant, for their dedicated service in guiding the Kopelles.

All sorors were visibly touched and expressed profound thanks for having been so honored.

Closing remarks were given by Mrs. Marie Dowell, and the benediction was done by Mrs. Aurelia Amos.

It was an enjoyable and purposeful way to spend a Saturday afternoon and guests who came to listen and enjoy lingered to chat and enjoy afterwards.

In addition to Mrs. Dowell, basileus, Miss Williams, first anti - basileus and Mrs. Elaine Alexander, epistoleus, other officers of the sorority are: Mrs. Elizabeth S. Day, second anti - basileus and a dais guest; Mrs. Laura P. Smith, financial grammateus; Mrs. Dorothy C. Smith, recording grammateus; Mrs. Josephine Flournoy, corresponding grammateus; Mrs. Marguerity Wilkins, tamiochus and Mrs. Mildred S. Lincar, parliamentarian.
