

And I do certify, That at said election 1,657 votes were cast in favor of the adoption of said Chapter 340 of the Acts of 1922 and 2,633 votes were cast against the adoption thereof, and a majority of votes being against the adoption of said Act the same was thereby rejected and repealed by the voters.

And I further certify, That at said election 2,348 votes were cast in favor of the adoption of said Chapter 498 of the Acts of 1922 and 2,313 votes were cast against the adoption thereof, and a majority of votes being in favor of the adoption of said Act the same was thereby adopted and approved by the voters and remained in full force and effect.

And I further certify, That at said election 1,937 votes were cast in favor of the adoption of said Chapter 524 of the Acts of 1922 and 2,967 votes were cast against the adoption thereof, and a majority of votes being against the adoption of said Act the same was thereby rejected and repealed by the voters.

To the Voters of Dorchester County:

Chapter 199, Acts of 1922:

“An Act to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, to issue bonds to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) for the purpose of acquiring a new site for a new public high school building in the Town of Cambridge or vicinity, and the building of a high school building thereon, and for the building, repairing, renovating or enlarging school buildings in Hurlock or vicinity or in other parts of Dorchester County and to authorize the County Commissioners to levy the necessary amount for the payment thereof, and to collect a tax upon the assessable property of Dorchester County.”

And I do certify, That at said election 1,729 votes were cast in favor of the adoption of said Chapter 199 of the Acts of 1922 and 3,228 votes were cast against the adoption thereof, and a majority of votes being against the adoption of said Act the same was thereby rejected and repealed by the voters.

(Seal) Done at the City of Annapolis, this first day of December, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

PHILIP B. PERLMAN,
Secretary of State.