

authorize it to engage in the business of an insurance broker applying therefor as hereinafter set forth, and paying to the Insurance Commissioner the sum of one hundred dollars for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar as a fee to the said Commissioner for issuing said license, may obtain a license for carrying on the business of an insurance broker; provided, however, that any natural person, bona fide copartnership, or corporation as aforesaid residing in any of the counties of this State, may, upon payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars for the use of the State, and an additional sum of one dollar as a fee to the said commissioner for issuing said license, obtain a license to act as broker as to risks situated in the county only within which he, they or it may reside. A license issued to a copartnership or corporation shall authorize only those members of the copartnership, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, or those officers, agents and employees of the corporation, not exceeding three in number, who are specified in the license, to act for the said copartnership or for the said corporation thereunder. The Insurance Commissioner shall from time to time, upon application, and payment of an additional sum of fifty cents in each case as a fee to the Insurance Commissioner, change the designations of members of copartnerships and of officers, agents and employees of corporations in licenses issued under this section to copartnerships and corporations. Every application for a license under this section shall be addressed to the Insurance Commissioner in writing on forms prescribed and prepared by him, and shall set forth in full the name and address of such applicant and the name and address of each person who proposes to act under a license issued as aforesaid to any copartnership or corporation, that each such applicant or person proposing to act under such license has not wilfully violated any of the insurance laws of this State during the past year and that he will not violate any such law during the term of the license applied for if issued; that he has not dealt unjustly with or deceived any citizen of this State or misrepresented the conditions of any insurance policy or contract; whether or not he is indebted to any insurance company or general agent by virtue of any contract as former agent or broker, whether or not his license as insurance agent or broker has been declined or revoked in this or any other State for a violation of law; where and in what business engaged during the past year, and in addition to such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may require, shall give full answers
