

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the bonds issued hereunder shall be the direct obligation of the said town, and the said town shall be responsible for the payment therefor. That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds and paying the interest thereon the Mayor and Council of Berlin are hereby authorized to levy on all property situated in the town limits of said town such a sum as may be necessary to pay the interest on said bonds and the principal or any part thereof, as it becomes due.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That at the regular municipal election to be held in the town of Berlin in May, 1924, there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of Berlin the questions whether the Mayor and Council of Berlin shall have authority to extend, add to and improve the electric light plant in said town, and to issue bonds therefor, and at such special election the ballots used and cast upon the questions shall have printed or written thereon the words "For the Improvements and Bond Issue" and "Against the Improvements and Bond Issue," and if a majority of the votes cast upon said questions shall be "For the Improvements and Bond Issue," the Mayor and Council of Berlin shall proceed to exercise the power vested in them by this Act; but if a majority of the votes cast upon said questions shall be "Against the Improvements and Bond Issue," then the questions before mentioned shall again be submitted to the qualified voters of said town, in the same manner at the next regular town election, and if at that election the majority of the votes cast upon said questions shall be "For the Improvements and Bond Issue," then the Mayor and Council shall proceed to exercise the power vested in them by this Act, but if a majority of the votes cast upon said questions shall be "Against the Improvements and Bond Issue," then this Act shall be null and void and the improvements shall not be made nor shall the bonds be issued.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 9, 1924.
