

the manner indicated in this section; but no street or alley given or dedicated shall be considered to be under the control of or be kept in repair by the Mayor or Town Council and at their expense unless said street or alley had been previously accepted by them. The Mayor and Town Council may enact all ordinances from time to time not contrary to law necessary and proper to the exercise of the power granted in this section; provided, that before opening or closing any street or alley at least twenty days notice shall be given them of any application which may be made for the passing of any such ordinance by notice posted in at least three public places, or by two weekly insertions in one newspaper published in Prince George's County.

SEC. 10. The Mayor and Town Council may by Ordinance provide such fines, penalties and forfeitures for breach of their ordinances as they may deem fit and proper, not exceeding Twenty-Five Dollars for any one offense, and may provide in the case of non-payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures that the offender be imprisoned in the town lock-up or county jail for a period not exceeding sixty days. All persons violating any ordinance passed by the Mayor and Town Council shall be tried before a Justice of the Peace of the Eighteenth (Seat Pleasant) District as such persons would be tried for violations of any State law, except that it shall be unnecessary for the Justice of the Peace to ask the accused if he desires jury trial. The Justice of the Peace in such cases shall receive such fees as are provided for in similar cases under the general law.

SEC. 11. The Mayor and Town Council shall have the power to require a license for all circuses, menageries, theatrical exhibition and other amusements for gain within the limits of said town and may charge therefor for each exhibition or show or performance a fee not in excess of Twenty-Five Dollars, provided, however, that this Section shall not apply to entertainments given for religious and charitable purposes nor to entertainments given by residents of the town not for gain. The Mayor and Town Council shall have the power to regulate business therein by requiring a license therefor and may charge a fee for such license not exceeding Fifteen Dollars. All licenses shall be for one year and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December of the year in which they have been issued.
