WHEREAS, at said election in November, 1920, Judge Duncan was re-elected, again without opposition, for another term of fifteen years; and

WHEREAS, Judge Duncan during his twenty-two years of continuous service on the Bench has retained his health and vigor and is now, as heretofore, discharging the duties of his high office to the admiration of all, bringing to the administration of justice exceptional qualities of mind and heart and a judgment ripened by experience; and

WHEREAS, on June 4th, 1928, Judge Duncan will attain the age of seventy years; and

WHEREAS, it is the sentiment of the members of the Bar of said Judicial Circuit, that while as a general rule the retirement of judges at seventy years of age makes for better government, the term of Judge Duncan should be extended as herein provided for the reasons above given; and

WHEREAS, there is a wide-spread desire on the part of the people of said Judicial Circuit that Judge Duncan's term should be extended; now, therefore,

Be it resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, that Honorable Frank I. Duncan be and he is hereby continued in office as an Associate Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit until the expiration of the full term for which he was elected.

Approved March 18, 1927.
