

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said Utilities Commission shall be and they are hereby directed and required to apply all revenues from the water system for paying the expenses of properly keeping up and operating said water system and pay over the surplus, if any remains, to the Commissioners of Oxford, semi-annually, on or before the 31st day of December and the 30th day of June in each and every year, which shall be used by the Commissioners of Oxford for the payment of interest and for the redemption of the bonds or notes outstanding against said Water System, herein authorized to be issued. And if at any time the revenues shall be insufficient for conducting and operating said water system until the same shall become self-sustaining then said Oxford Utilities Commission shall have authority and are hereby empowered to draft upon the Commissioners of Oxford to meet such deficiency, and the said Commissioners of Oxford shall honor and pay the same out of any funds in their hands unproportioned to special purposes; and should said Commissioners of Oxford not have the necessary funds to meet such drafts, then the said Commissioners of Oxford are authorized to borrow upon the faith and credit of the town, or to raise by a special tax, the funds necessary to meet such deficiency.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That said Oxford Utilities Commission shall have the right to open streets for extending water mains without special permit, but notice must be given the Commissioners of Oxford in writing, of an intention to make such openings and to extend such mains, and the said Utilities Commission is required to have the openings carefully guarded to avoid accident, and to restore and to comply with the requirements of the town as to restoring the road bed or sidewalk in its normal condition.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That said Utilities Commission shall have full authority to sell to the Commissioners of Oxford and to the inhabitants of Oxford and vicinity the product of said Water System.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall not become effective unless at a special election to be held in the Town of Oxford on a date to be fixed by the Commissioners of said Town, which election shall be conducted in all respects as regular elections in the Town of Oxford are conducted, there shall be cast a majority of votes in favor of the water supply loan as provided in this Act, and that at said election the question of the approval or disapproval of the provisions of this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the said Town of Oxford, as follows, namely: That on the ballots
