Mrs. Mary Spellman, 75, former Morgan dean

Mrs. Mary Johnson Spellman, educator and civic leader, died suddenly Thursday, March 13 at Provident Hospital. She was 75-years-old.

Funeral services will be Monday, March 10 at St. James Episcopal Church, Lafayette and Arlington Avenue. Exact arrangements were unavailable at AFRO presstime.

Mrs. Spellman was born in Baltimore, the daughter of the late William and Mary Johnson. Mr. Johnson was a prominent caterer from 1885 to 1935.

Mrs. Spellman graduated from Douglass High School and received her bachelor of science degree from Howard University in Washington, D.C.

She was employed as director of education at the Maryland Training School for Girls prior to becoming assistant dean of women at then Morgan College until her retirement in 1977.

Mrs. Spellman was one of the charter members of the Baltimore chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and was recently honored at the group's Founders' Day ceremony.

She was an active member of St. James Episcopal Church and served in the Bragg Guild.

Mrs. Spellman also belonged to the Howard University Alumni Association, Baltimore chapter. The group saluted her outstanding contribution on Sunday, March 8.

She is survived by her sister, Elizabeth J. Johnson.

Mrs. Ethel Smalley, 66, was minister's widow

Mrs. Ethel Pettway Smalley, 62, widow of the Rev. Roger Smalley, pastor of Mt. Hope U.A.M.E. Church in Camden, N.J., died on Saturday at Sinai Hospital.

She had been residing in Baltimore with a daughter, Elayne Smalley, since January. Her husband died in 1962.

Funeral services were held Thursday, March 13, at the Mt. Hope Church in Camden. The family received friends in Baltimore on Wednesday evening at the Dyett Funeral Home.

A native of Vine Island, N.J., she was the daughter of Ethel M. Harmer Pettway and Jesse Pettway. She was educated in the Schools of Vineland, and worked as a crossing guard after the death of her husband. She was active in her husband's churches during his pastorates in the state of New Jersey.

In addition to the daughter, Elaine, she is survived by a son, Eugene Smalley of Jeffrey Rd. in Baltimore.

Other survivors: Four brothers and six sister. They are: Maxwell, Herman, Leslie and Sidney Pettway, all of Vineland, N.J., Mildred Terry, Bernice Steward, Joyce Dean, Marlene Moore, Phyllis Preyer, all of Vineland; and Delores Fleming, Philadelphia.

Mary R. Reid, District teacher and administrator

Mary R. Reid, for 38 years a teacher and administrator in the D.C. public schools, died Friday, Feb. 29, after having suffered a stroke.

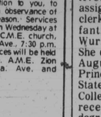
A native of Washingtonian, Mrs. Reid was the daughter of James Coleman Roye and Hallie Lonesome Roye, and grew up in the neighborhood of 18th and "T" Sts., N.W. She was a product of the public schools of the District of Columbia and a graduate of Miner Normal School.

Early in her career, she acquired degrees from Howard, Columbia, and New York Universities.

After teaching in an elementary school for a few years, Mrs. Reid became one of the original staff members of the laboratory school of Miner Teachers College. There she was known for her infinite patience, understanding and untiring efforts to provide appropriate guidance for the student teachers assigned to her, many of whom eventually rose to the top of the profession.

Mrs. Reid retired from the school system in 1962, after having served ten years as principal of the Neval Thomas Elementary School.

Throughout her career and during her retirement, she was active in professional and civic organizations, serving as an officer in the College Alumnae Club, the D.C. Education Association, the School Officers' Group, the Educational Employees Federal Credit Union, to name a few.



MARY R. REID

Mrs. Reid was a member of the Howard University Women's Club, the Howard University Alumni Association, Teachers College of Columbia University Alumni Association, the Kingman Park Citizens Association, and the Golden Age Club of St. Benedict the Moor Catholic Church.

Mrs. Reid was also active in Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, having been sponsor of an undergraduate chapter for many years as well as treasurer and president of a graduate chapter and national representative to the President's Council on Civil and Human Rights.

She was a lifelong member of Shiloh Baptist Church, teaching Sunday School and serving as pianist and organist there and at several other churches in the city. In later years she formed a loving relationship with Calvary Episcopal Church, which other members of her family had joined.

Surviving Mrs. Reid are her children, Frank Reid and Rosalie Kennedy: her grandchildren, James and Karol Kennedy and Patricia Singh; her great- grandchildren, Kishan and Kasmir Singh; son-in-law, James Kennedy Jr., and grandson-in-law, Kuldip Singh.

Friends of Mrs. Reid are invited to contribute in her name to the Building Fund of Calvary Episcopal Church, 820 Sixth St., N.W. Washington, D.C. 20002.

From The Lenten Service Committee
In a society where modernism has taken over the Lifestyles of many, we the black church, in the city of Baltimore, still find it important to hold dear to our Lifestyles the simplicity and beauty of the Lenten Season. It is a deep emotional time in the christian year. When we the believer remember the passion, death and triumphant resurrection of our savior, Jesus Christ. Lent symbolizes a period of self sacrifices, a time of self denial. Although, we observe this period of Forty days by denying our physical man. We believe fully realize that any sacrifice or self denial, could never repay the beauty and deep act of Love displayed on Calvary. If you to Feel a need to remember the we were, and what that Love Story, has helped us to become. We extend a warm invitation to you, to come join us in observance of this Lenten Season. Services will be held each Wednesday at the Mt. Pisgah C.M.E. church, 1034 N. Fulton Ave., 7:30 p.m. Holy week services will be held at Penna. Ave. A.M.E. Zion Church, Penna. Ave. and Dolphin St.

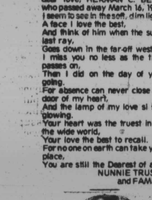
IN MEMORIAM

BASS — In loving memory of our mother and loved one, MABLE BASS, who passed away March 13, 1979:
Safely beyond all grief and care
May God grant that we meet someday
In a special place.
From Her, 11 CHILDREN, HUSBAND, MOTHER, GRANDCHILDREN, SISTERS and BROTHERS

BELL — In loving memory of my dear love, HERMAN C. BELL, who passed away March 16, 1979:
I seem to see in the self, dim light
A face I love the best,
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off west.
I miss you no less as the time passes on,
Then I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart,
And the lamp of my love sl still glowing
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
Your love the best to recall,
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the Dearest of all.
NUNNIE TRUSTY and FAMILY



MURPHY — In loving memory of our dear mother VASHTI V. MURPHY, who passed away March 17, 1960:
Loving and kind in all her ways
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
DAUGHTERS

RANDOLPH — In loving memory of our dear sister and aunt, DORIS A. RANDOLPH, who passed away February 26, 1979:
All who believe in God's mercy and grace,
Will meet their loved ones face to face.
Where time is endless and by unbroken,
And only the words of God's love are spoken.
SISTERS, BROTHERS, NIECES and NEPHEWS.

CARDS OF THANKS

HARRIS — The family of the late DR. N. ALLEN HARRIS would like to thank relatives and friends for their acts of kindness and thoughtfulness during the time of its bereavement.

BIRTHDAY TRIBUTE

HARRIS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our son and brother ARTHUR E. HARRIS, JR., on his birthday March 15th, who passed away July 10th, 1978:
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind
The days we do not think of you are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give
We give it yes, and more:
To see the face of our dear son
On this, his birthday again.
