ATTENTION PROPERTY OWNERS
Do you want to improve the condition of your rental unit but find yourself unable to do so because your present tenants would be unable to pay a higher rent? We can help you!

If your rental unit needs a minimum of $1,000 of repairs either to correct housing code violations, to repair the roof or to replace heating, electrical or plumbing systems that are in danger of failure, you may be eligible for the Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Program, the newest tool available to help improve the housing of Baltimore City.

Here's how the program works:
1. You, the owner, tell us about your property.
2. Our staff can assist you in determining what improvements are needed to your property and how much they will cost.
3. If at least $1,000 of repairs are needed (there is no ceiling on the amount of repairs permitted), we then see whether your existing tenants are eligible for the program, based on their income. (If rental units are vacant, they can also be included in the program).

4. The rent you charge for your rehabilitated unit must be a fair one, within established Fair Market Rents.

4. Your existing tenants, or new tenants if the unit was vacant before rehabilitation, pay one-fourth of their income towards the rent. We will pay the rest of the rent, directly to you.

5. You will remain responsible for all management functions, including maintenance.

7. The unit will be inspected by us annually, and at such other times as may be necessary.

Units must be made available on an equal opportunity basis, and in conformance with all federal, state and local laws. The program will be conducted without regard to race, color, creed, national origin, sex, or marital status.

We are seeking units throughout Baltimore City. We are especially seeking participation by owners in Park Heights, Sandtown-Winchester, Reservoir Hill, Harwood, Coldstream-Homestead-Montebello, and neighborhoods where the population is not predominantly low income or of a racial minority.

For information, write Moderate Rehabilitation Housing Program, Department of Housing and Community Development, Room 510, 222 East Saratoga Street, Baltimore, Maryland, 21203, or call 396 - 4202.
