

LAWS OF MARYLAND OF 1929

MARYLAND, Sct.:

At a Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis, on the Second Day of January, 1929, and ending on the First Day of April, 1929, the Honorable Albert C. Ritchie, being Governor of the State, the following Laws were enacted, to wit:

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT to vest in the committee heretofore appointed by the Governor of Maryland for the investigation of the affairs of the State Roads Commission, and herein confirmed, the further power to summon and examine witnesses, to require the production of books, documents, accounts and papers, to provide penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of this Act, and to regulate the meetings of such committee and what shall constitute a quorum thereof.

WHEREAS, a committee composed of John J. Nelligan, George M. Shriver, Jonathan K. Voshell and Edwin G. Baetjer has heretofore been appointed by the Governor of Maryland to investigate the affairs of the State Roads Commission, with the purpose of ascertaining any thefts or wrongful diversions or uses of money, supplies or other property of said State Roads Commission which may have occurred; the procedure, legality and propriety of purchases and of the award of contracts, and also the performance of contracts and the payments thereunder; the accounting methods and business procedure of the State Roads Commission; and any and all other acts of said State Roads Commission which the investigating committee herein referred to may deem proper to investigate in the public interest; therefore:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said investigating committee, in addition to the powers and authority mentioned in the preamble of this Act, which are hereby confirmed, be and the same is further
