

Prince George's County for similar advertising, then in a newspaper published in Prince George's County which has a circulation in the town of Mount Rainier, once a week for two successive weeks prior to said election, and also by posting notices of such election in at least two places within the limits of each ward in said town.

The ballots shall be prepared as ballots are prepared for a general town election and shall have printed thereon the words, "For a special assessment of not to exceed 10 cents on each $100.00 of real and personal property to be paid to the Mount Rainier Volunteer Fire Department for its exclusive use in the maintenance, operation, care and purchase of equipment," with a blank square opposite at the right of said words, and immediately thereunder shall be the following words: "Against a special assessment of not to exceed 10 cents on each $100.00 of real and personal property to be paid to the Mount Rainier Volunteer Fire Department for its exclusive use in the maintenance, operation, care and purchase of equipment," with a blank square opposite at the right of said words.

And in the event that said election shall be held at the same time that the regular town election is held, said words and blank squares shall be printed on the regular ballot for said election, and the officials in charge of said regular election shall act as officials for this election and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are the votes for the regular election.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some other time than a regular election, then the Mayor and Common Council shall appoint the necessary officers to conduct said election, and said election and the count and canvass of said ballots shall be conducted as provided in the town charter for all general town elections.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some time other than a regular election, the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

And in the event that at such election the majority of votes cast for and against the amendment allowing the special tax shall be in favor of allowing said special tax, then this Act shall be in full force and effect; but in event that the majority of votes so cast shall be against the amendment allowing the special tax, then the Mayor and Common Council may submit the same question in the same manner and under this Act to the qualified voters of said town at the general town election held in said town in May, 1930, in the same method and man-
