CHAPTER 567.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 165 of Article 23 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Corporations," sub-title "Building or Homestead Associations," as said section was re-enacted with amendments by the Act of 1933, Chapter 26, providing for the enlargement of the classes of securities in which building and homestead associations may invest their funds, and authorizing such associations to avail themselves of the benefits, advantages and privileges available to them under the provisions of an Act of Congress approved June 27, 1934, and known as the "National Housing Act"; repealing all laws inconsistent with this Act and declaring the same to be an emergency law necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and health.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 165 of Article 23 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1929 Supplement), title "Corporations," sub-title "Building or Homestead Associations," as said section was re-enacted with amendments by the Act of 1933, Chapter 26, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

165. The payment of the unpaid installments and the premiums on the share or shares so purchased or redeemed, with interest on the money paid therefor, as aforesaid, and all fines and penalties incurred in respect thereof by any member, shall be secured to such corporation, by mortgage on real or leasehold property, or by the hypothecation of stock of such corporation held by such member or by judgment of a court of law or by a justice of the peace or by a decree of a court of equity all as may be pro-
