Deltas hold Eastern Regional here

By Ida Peters

The 1980 Eastern Regional Conference of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. meeting in Baltimore under the theme "Delta's Impact on the '80s: Black Youth and Black Women" drew 902 registered delegates.

Also in attendance were co-founder Osceola McCarthy Adams of New York who drew standing ovations whenever she appeared and two honorary members Dr. Pauli Murray, Episcopal priest; and Soror Ethel Payne, AFRO columnist from Chicago.

At the closing banquet Soror Laura Knight presented a check for $2,000 from Baltimore Alumnae to be added to $2,000 already presented to National President Mona Bailey of Seattle to be used for the Endowed Professor Chair at black colleges.

Baltimore Alumnae also presented $800. to Mrs. Julia Woodland, principal for use by the Dunbar High School Chorus who sang at the Saturday session.

Soror Chappell Armstead of Baltimore, who has served two terms as Regional Director was presented a silver bowl in appreciation of her work at a reception given by Baltimore Alumnae, Friday night.

Newly elected Regional Director is Soror Dorothy Stanley of the Mid-Hudson Alumnae Chapter. She is the wife of Columbus L. Stanley, vice-mayor of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Mrs. Mona Bailey, National President speaking at the closing banquet urged all Deltas to support the National Youth Pilgrimage, May 17 in Washington, D.C. sponsored by the Rev. Jesse Jackson and Mayor Richard Hatcher.

She also stopped the banquet so that 900 sorors could write letters to their congressmen urging them to balance President Carter's budget without hurting the poor, black and hungry.

Dr. Bernard Watson, vice-president of Temple University speaking at the Saturday luncheon said that black people and the people of this nation must get their priorities straight, cut military spending and get the budget turned around.

He warned that it is a disgrace that black youth are out of work but willing to work. He said if we aren't careful, this nation is creating a permanent underclass made up of young, out of school youth, unemployed and without hope. He said we will "sow the wind and reap the whirlwind."

Further he said that black women, men and youth are not involved in the struggle but we must determine how blacks are included or excluded, determine what we want; determine how to achieve it and mesh strategies with other groups in this society.

And he cautioned Deltas to not get confused. He said that most of us are two pay checks away from poverty and we are acting with "suicidal behavior" in this country and that we will either all rise together or we'll go down together.

Soror Chapelle Armstead of Baltimore Eastern Regional Director presided over the three day session. Mrs. Hortense G. Canady is National First Vice-President; Ms. Barbara R. Bagneris, National Second Vice-President; Dr. Shirle M. Childs, National Secretary; Ms. Lorine S. Samuels, National Treasurer. Ms. Andrea D. Blackwell of Washington, Easterm Region Representative.

Sorors Tanya Abney and Cheryl Davis are shown at the Jobs Alike Working luncheon conducted by National President Mona Bailey.

Other participants were Soror Lorine Samuels, National Treasurer and Soror Shirle Childs, National Secretary.

Undergraduate chapters of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority held a sing in Hopkins Plaza Saturday afternoon decked out in crimson and cream.

Above are Sorors Crisonia Ayers and Kathy Brook from Lambda Kappa Chapter of University of Maryland Baltimore County.

Sorors Vannesia D. Morgan and Sherri L. Morgan of Baltimore Alumnae enjoy Delta banquet and were among the 900 writing letters to Congressmen.

Sorors Myra White and Cheryl Talley of Baltimore Alumnae enjoy Delta closing banquet.

Sorors Lorine S. Samuels, National Treasurer; Dr. Charlene Cooper Boston, Convention Coordinator; and Mrs. Laura Knight, president, Baltimore Alumnae.

Mrs. Lynnette Taylor, Executive Director National Delta House and Mrs. Frances M. Flippen, both of Washington, D.C.

Ms. Andrea Blackwell, Washingoon, Eastern Regional Representative (L); Mrs. Thelma Daley, Immediate Past National President; Mrs. Osceola McCarthy Adams, New York, co - founder.

Sorors Jody L. Allen, Francine Cannon and Terry Bayard from the University of Delaware, Mu Pi Chapter.

National President Mona Bailey chats with Soror Ida Murphy Peters, daughter of founder Vashti Turley Murphy.

Soror Chapelle Armstead is presented silver punch bowl by Baltimore Alumnae for a job well done serving two terms as Regional Director. Making presentation are Sorors Maizie Rea and Rosemary Atkinson.

Sorors Anita Gould and Crystal Morris of the Washington, D.C. Alumnae Chapter.

Relaxing in the Hilton Hotel lobby between sessions last weekend were Delta Sorors Nina Hickson, Alpha Chapter, Howard University; Jerald Hamilton, Federal City D.C. Alumnae; and Brigitte Nash, Alpha Chapter, Howard University.
