Sickle Cell committee sponsors a brunch

The committee for Sickle Cell Anemia sponsored a brunch recently at St. John AME Church with Del. Larry Young as speaker. Del. Young stated blacks should be informed about sickle cell and one out of every 10 blacks has sickle cell.

Proceeds from the luncheon will be used to help benefit sickle cell research. Sickle cell anemia is a hereditary blood disorder commonly found in people of African descent. It is characterized by the presence of a chronic anemia, jaundice, recurrent bouts of pain, frequent growth retardation, an increased susceptibility to certain infections, a decreased physical capability and occasionally, a shortened life span.

The sickle cell anemia brunch committee was jointly conceived by local residents, community leaders, public officials and health care professionals out of a desperate need to combat the disease.

The brunch is part of the sickle cell anemia walk-a-thon kick off activities sponsored by the committee on sickle cell anemia inc. The walk-a-thon will be held June 1. You can register for the walk-a-thon at Memorial Stadium between 7 and 10 a.m.

Committee members for the brunch were Austin Johnson, Dessie Byrd, The Rev. Benjamin S. Foust, Josephine Eversley, Bob Williams, Michael Scales, Vera Smith, Linda Govan, Cleveland Jones, Edith Evans, Irma Thompson, Irvin Conway, Thomas Waters and Christine Hall.

The Baltimore committee on sickle cell anemia was established in 1969 to promote, finance and conduct programs to provide research, treatment and education in sickle cell anemia and to coordinate existing and future programs concerning sickle cell anemia in Baltimore.

Viola Ragland, 80

Funeral services for Mrs. Viola Graham Ragland were held Saturday, May 17 at March Funeral Home. Mrs. Ragland was 80-years-old.

She was born Sept. 12, 1899 in Westminster, Md., the eldest child of the late Isaac and Ella Mae Cross.

Mrs. Ragland moved to Washington, D.C. in 1918 where she was employed at Walter Reed Hospital. In 1925, Mrs. Ragland set up permanent residence in Baltimore where she lived in the 800 block of Woodburne Ave.

She was a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses for 28 years and she enjoyed quoting scripture and crocheting.

Mrs. Ragland is survived by three children, Morris Harrison Graham, Mrs. Gloria Maxine Carter and Mrs. Janice Marion McGee; one sister, Mrs. Maryanna Gambrell; one son-in-law, Melvin Earl Carter; two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Anna Bell Graham and Mrs. Lethia Ragland; 18 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Burial was in King Memorial Park.

Mrs. Viola Ragland

Last rites held for Sister Mary Wade

Sister Mary Angela Wade, a retired official of the Oblate Sisters of Providence and its schools died May 16. She was 87.

A mass of Christian burial for Sister Wade was held May 19 at the chapel of the mother house of the order, 701 Gun Road in Catonsville. Born in Washington, she was the daughter of Benjamin Z. and Caroline Duckett Wade.

In 1915, she entered the congregation of the Oblate Sisters of Providence in Baltimore. Her first assignment was as a teacher at Immaculate Conception school in Charleston, S.C., where she remained until 1926, when she was sent to Villanova College to complete work toward a degree.

Sister Wade was instrumental in founding the Oblate Institute, a teacher training school for the order that has since become Mount Providence Junior College.

From 1947 to 1959, she was a member of the General Council, the governing body of her order, which was founded in Baltimore. She also served as vice principal of St. Frances Academy and as a supervisor for the other schools operated by her order.

She retired in 1963. Sister Wade is survived by two sisters, Ms. Emily Bowser, of Washington; and Sister Mary Pius Wade of Baltimore; three brothers, Paul Wade and Hyde Wade of Washington and Gonza Wade of Los Angeles.

Sister Mary Butler, 91

Christian wake services for Sister Mary Sabina were held at the Mother house chapel in Catonsville on May 21. Sister Butler, a former teacher in schools of her order in Washington and in Charleston, S.C. died after a long illness. She was 91.

Sister Mary Sabrina Butler

Sister Butler had been living at the Mother house since 1965 when she retired. Born in Washington, she was the daughter of John and Rosa Stokes Butler. She received her education in Washington schools before entering the novitiate of the Oblate Sisters of Providence in Baltimore in 1911.

She made her first profession of vows in 1913, when she accepted an assignment to St. Barnabas School in Baltimore. Except for three years in St. Louis, from 1915 - 1918, Sister Sabina spent her entire religious life in schools in Baltimore, Washington and Charleston.

A graduate of Mount Mary College in Milwaukee, Sister Butler taught numerous grades at St. Ann Cyprian School in Washington from 1919 to 1940. She also taught at St. Frances Academy, where she was head of the history department. After she retired, she continued to help students on a tutorial basis at Mount Providence Junior College until it closed in 1972.

Missionary confab to be held here

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

"GO OUT INTO THE WORLD AND PREACH THE GOSPEL"... Some women had a vision. They met and prayed. Truly God was in their midst, for out of that meeting, a great church was created. The Reverend C. Edward Browne was called and the Peoples Church of Baltimore City was organized on May 15, 1915. After having worshiped at three edifices, in 1919, the site at Bond and Jefferson Streets was purchased.

Godly, sincere christians made up that beautiful church. The Reverend C. Edward Browne was truly a man of God. He led his flock and gave love that was showered on the parishioners. He was a man of all seasons. His sermons were uplifting, heard and repeated by the children.

Every Christmas, the Senior Choir and friends would sing throughout East Baltimore. Many times, they were invited into homes for cocoa and goodies. Later, this same group started singing at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, a practice that has continued to the present time. Truly a "Church Outside the Walls". Fortunately, we had some of the best trained musicians of the city as organists and directors. To name a few, Mr. William Maddox, first Choirmaster, Mrs. Alice Mae Williams, first organist. Following them were, Mr. Aladin Redmond, Mrs. Lovey E. Husketh, Prof. Harry Gil-Smythe, Mr. Charles Stanley, Mrs. Emma Poulson, Mrs. Bernita H. Murray, Mr. Edward McCrosky, Mrs. Posey Carter and the present musicians, Mr. Charles Arnette, Jr., Mrs. Audrey E. Phillips and Mr. Edmond D. Meade Jr. The partials developed voices that will never be forgotten. Other than choirs, other groups formed themselves into choruses and sang all over Maryland to large and small groups. Most noted among those choruses was the Sunshine Singing Association. Many missions sprang out of this church. Men were trained at the church and left to form churches of their own.

Our church believed that its future was in the children, so many activities were planned for them. Junior Church before the regular morning worship service was attended by a large number of children. From this service, they were ushered into the balcony for the adult service. Members have come and gone, but one cannot forget that our church has many distinguished folk. Boys and girls who were trained in our church have applied themselves, and remembered their christian training, and have gone into the world to share it.

A most memorable activity of the peoples Christian Church was the Baptismal Service held after a ride down the bay on Captain Brown's Boat.

Our Church School has succeeded because of the efforts of many individuals. Mr. Melvin Johnson was the first superintendent, Mrs. Estella Warwick was next, followed by Prof. E. Jerry Williams, Mr. Angelo Smith and Mrs. Barbara A. Mitchell.

In the field of training, Mr. Charles J. Rusk directed the Baptist Training Union in 1920, followed by Mrs. Louise P. Brown, Miss Helen V. Barton and Mr. Gerald Trusty.

With the passing of our organizer, the Reverend E. Edward Browne in 1930, the baton of the church was given into the hands of our very able associate, the Reverend Angus A. Smith. Under his direction, the church has continue to progress. There are twelve organizations, one choir, six choruses and our Official Board.

We are ever grateful for our background. With the help of God, we shall carry on the work for the Lord his name at it.

Thelma Culp, Pres. of Women Auxiliary
Ruth Westbrook, Pres. Youth Department
Rev. William Brown, President
Rev. J. E. William, Host Pastor
