On Friday, May 23, the Kappa Silhouettes of Baltimore hosted a Hawaiian Luau which was highly colorful and festive.

Nearly 300 Silhouettes, their Kappa guys and guests gathered at La Fontaine Bleu, Erdman Ave. all decked out in garb so dazzling that the entire affair was truly reminiscent of being in Hawaii. Nearly everyone came dressed Hawaiian style.

The Silhouettes greeted their guests and necklaced each with a vibrantly colored lei.

Tables were covered with cheerful multicolored tablecloths, and each contained a centerpiece of artfully cut pineapple with fresh fruit inside.

Guests enjoyed a delicious sit down dinner, which included the traditional roast pig with the apple in his mouth and many other goddies.

There was continuous open bar and buffet, with the featured drink being pina colodas.

The 'Commissioners of Washington Band' played numerous Hawaiian tunes as well as the latest popular ones, which set the tone for much spirited dancing. Everyone had a beautiful time.

The Kappa brothers did the 'Sweetheart Song' for their Silhouettes prior to the end of the affair, which lasted from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

This colorfull zesty, fun - filled evening climaxed the Kappa Silhouettes activities for the season as their end - of - the - year activity.

Silhouette officers are Mesdames Virginia Watkins, president; Doris Stacks, vice president; Amelia Chase, secretary; Florence Davis, treasurer and Ivy Harris, parliamentarian and chairperson for the Luau.

LUAU DANCE COMMITTEE—Members of the Kappa Silhouettes' Hawaiian Luau dance committee are (L to R): Mrs. Laure Brown, Mrs. Merita Donaldson, Mrs. Elva Edwards, Mrs. Hortense Perkins, Mrs. Carolyn Cole, Mrs. Gloria Carpenter, Mrs. Ivy Harris, chair for the affair and Mrs. Bea Draine.

Reception given for new attorney

By Pattie Hodges
AFRO Staff Writer

On Wednesday, May 21 a reception was given for George E. Tindal, Esq., by his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Henry W. Tindal at their home in northwest Baltimore.

The reception followed the swearing in ceremony of George Tindal in Annapolis, Md. as an attorney in the state of Maryland.

Mr. Tindal was one of the few successful black candidates who passed the Maryland State Bar Examination which was given in February, 1980.

Attorney Tindal is a graduate of Franklin & Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., holding a B.S. Degree in Political Science. While at Franklin and Marshall College he was given special commendation for scholastic achievement by the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. He also holds scholastic honors from Phi Mother-Daughter Banquet hosted by Girl Scout Troop No. 1330.

Members of Girl Scout Troop No. 1330, headed by Mrs. Sandy Winkler, hosted a mother-daughter banquet on May 18 at the Oliver Multipurpose Center, 1400 E. Federal St.

Mothers of the girl scouts and other guests who attended deemed it a lovely affair.

Welcome was given by Natasha Jones.

A clarinet selection, 'The Karzy Klock' was done by five members of the troop, who are also music students at St. Catherine's School.

History of the troop was given by Leslie Meredith.

A summation of the troop's activies, participated in since its investation in April '79, was given by Devona Gibbs.

Michael Johnson, Baltimore City Team Manager for the Girl Scouts of Central Maryland, spoke on Girl Scouting, what it means, and how it cannot take place without interested persons like Mrs. Winkler.

He presented girl scout emblems and World Association pens to the members of the troop.

He also presented Mrs. Winkler with a Plaque of Appreciation from the Girl Scouts of Central Maryland.

An interpretive dance, done by Nichole Jones, Monica Briggs and Tiffany Bridgeforth to 'The Lord's Prayer was highly touching.

Following the invocation by Brother Den-Bey guests enjoyed a scrumptuous dinner which included turkey salad, ham, potato salad, homemade hot rools, lettuce and tomatoes, condiments, and chocolate, caramel and lemon supreme cake.

There was delicious punch for sipping. The entire menu was prepared by Mrs. Winkler's mother, Mrs. Marian Archer.

Highlight of the affair was a fashion show done by the members of the girl scout troop, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Douglass, director of Eve's Modeling Troupe, who had instructed the girls several weeks prior to the banquet on the art of modeling, charm and grace.

Commentator was Miss Patricia Archer, one of Eve's models, and Mrs. Winkler's sister.

The youthful models aired dressy dresses and sportswear.
