

opposite at the right of said words, and immediately thereunder shall be the following words "Against Street Improvement Loan," with a blank square opposite at the right of said words.

And in the event that said election shall be held at the same time that another or a regular town election is held, said words and blank squares shall be printed on the same ballot for said election, and the officials in charge of said election shall act as officials of this election, and said votes shall be canvassed at the same time and in the same manner as are votes for the said election.

And in the event that said election shall be held at some time other than when another or a regular election is held, the poll books showing the registered voters of said town last registered shall be used.

In the event that at such election, the majority of the votes cast on said questions shall be "For Street Improvement Loan," then this Act shall be in full force and effect, but in event that the majority of the votes so cast shall be "Against Street Improvement Loan," then this Act shall be null and void and of no effect.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That if this Act is approved and the bonds are issued and sold as herein provided, the treasurer of the town shall give such additional bond as said Mayor and Town Council shall prescribe.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1931.
