Omegas assist UNCF telethon, elect new officers

The Brothers of Pi Omega Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, gave their time and money to the Lou Rawls Parade of Stars Telethon for the benefit of the United Negro College Fund which was televised locally on Saturday, May 31st, 8 to 11 p.m. on WMAR Channel 2.

Under the coordination of Brother Cornelius Whitaker, Brothers were dispatched to area clubs to assist these establishments with their Commercial Viewing Parties. At each of these clubs, Brothers certified funds collected and reported totals to the television station during the three hour telethon.

Approximately $15,000 was raised during the local effort. Keeping in mind Omega Psi Phi Fraternity's commitment to raise $260,000 for UNCF over and above normal contributions, Pi Omega Chapter pledged $500 during the fundraiser. In addition, Pi Omega's Quetles pledged $250 of their monies during the telethon.

Brother Judson Wood, vice basileus of Pi Omega, presented the chapter's pledges.

In summing up the chapter's participation in the telethon, Brother Whitaker stated that Brothers were very cooperative and gave of themselves freely for this very worthwhile project.

Pi Omega Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity held its last meeting for this chapter year on June 2nd. At that meeting, new officers for the 1980 - 81 year were installed.

Brother Walter Amprey, 2nd District representative, conducted the installation of officers for his home chapter.

Pi Omega Chapter traditionally recesses during the summer months. The next fraternity meeting will be in early September.

New officers for Pi Omega Chapter are:

Brother Lloyd M. Alston, basileus; Brother Judson Wood, vice basileus; Brother Daniel R. Lyle, Jr., keeper of records and seal; Brother Lemuel O. Boone Jr., asst. keeper of records and seal; Brother Harold Hart, keeper of finance; Brother Kermit C. Burton, asst. keeper of finance; Brother Benjamin C. Whitten, Ph.D., Parliamentarian; Brother T. Russell Hopewell, keeper of property;

Also Brother Otis H. Robertson, asst. keeper of property; Brother Benjamin M. Phillips, IV, chapter editor; Brother Clarence E. Henderson, chaplain; Brother Nelson E. Wilkerson, keeper of peace; Brother Clarence M. Hurtt, member at large and Brothers Hilbert D. Stanley, Ph.D., and Brother James A. Priest, M.D., members at large.

The honoree was escorted in as everyone stood, and was presented with roses from the family by Ms. Cynthia Bellamy, a granddaughter of the honoree and the daughter of sponsor, Mrs. Marie Bellamy.

A solo was done by Mrs. Lorraine Owens, a friend of the family.

During the greetings given by Congressman Mitchell, he spoke of the importance of the family and of family unity in this, "The International Year of the Family."

The afternoon message was delivered by the Rev. Cleve Johnson, moderator, Kingston Association of South Carolina and a family cousin. He spoke on the beauty of a family united in love and caring as the Bellamy family is.

The late John Huffman, deceased husband of Mrs. Grace Godbolt Huffman Bellamy, was honored by the placing of a rose in a basket of live flowers by Mrs. Marie Bellamy, who also placed one rose in the basket for the entire family.

Mrs. Grace Godbolt Huffman Bellamy and the late John Huffman produced 11 children, more than 50 grandchildren and many, many great-grandchildren.

In addition to the roses she received, the honoree was presented a monetary gift from the family.

The Lee Singers, a local gospel group, rendered three selections and Mrs. Katy Johnson, another friend of the family, did a solo.

Remarks and the benediction were offered by the Rev. Washington Flowers, pastor of the church.

Pierians initiate new members

Four new members were initiated into the Pierians, the well-known arts-loving group, at their closing meeting, June 14, in the Art Gallery of Morgan State University.

The new Pierians are Mrs. Clarence (Bernice) Monroe, Mrs. Harold (Elizabeth) Ramsey, Mrs. J. C. (Agnes) Reeves and Mrs. Lester (Doris) Wallace.

After a briefing of the club's history by Pierian Annette Johnson, founder and historian, and Jewel Marsan, incumbent president, each new member was presented her official pin and an American beauty rose.

After the ceremony, the entire membership viewed new objects of art acquired by the art gallery and heard a critique of the same by James E. Lewis, director of the gallery, and Henry O. Tanner, distinguished professor of art.

The meeting closed with a champagne reception in honor of the initiates. Husbands of the Pierians also attended.

The committee in charge was composed of Hazel H. Fleming, chairperson; Geraldine Desbordes, Evelyn Haysbert, Jacqueline Lewis, Charlotte Mebane, Gwendolyn Tarter and Celonia Walden.

Ms. Williams also presented the eight finalists. They were Henry Nelson, 2900 block Walbrook Ave., nominated by Yolanda Nelson; Larry Spriggs, 4600 block Park Heights Ave., nominated by Stephanie Redmon; Michael Dorsey, 700 block W. Saratoga St., nominated by Angela DeGrace, Henry W. Ireland, 1600 block N. Gilmore St., nominated by Faith Ireland, Kebwe Millner-Bey, 700 block Druid Park Drive, nominated by Cheryl Bailey; Charles Brown, 1100 block Argyle Ave., nominated by Lora Wilson, Nathaniel Morris, 3800 block Pall Mall Rd., nominated by Nathaniel M. Morris and Michael A. Blue, 700 block W. Mulberry St., nominated by Jeanna Blue.

Letters of the three winners were read by AFRO staffwriters Portia Badham, Ebonie Alexander and Bonnie Butler.

Second runner-up was Nathaniel Morris, whose name had been submitted along with a letter glowing with praise from his handicapped son, Nathaniel Michael Morris.

The youngster told of how his father had built and adjusted things for him for the entire 17 years of his life which helped to make his handicap easier to bear.

First runner-up was Charles Brown whose name and nominating letter had been submitted by his stepdaughter, Lora, who had composed a poem of tribute to her step-dad, not only for his kindness, love and helpfulness toward her but to others in their neighborhood as well.

Winner and 'AFRO Father of the Year - 1980' was Michael Blue, whose name and entry letter had been submitted by his daughter, Jeanna Blue.

Mr. Blue, the father of seven children, was praised highly by his daughter for finding time for them all — for helping them with schoolwork and for taking them on outings on weekends and "or finding time to help other members in the family as well.

Mr. Blue as "AFRO Father of the Year - 1980" received among his prizes a $50 gift certificate to Hamburger's, Dinner for two at D'Joint and 2 tickets to the Arena Player's production of "God's Trombones".

Charles Borwn, first runner-up, received a $50 gift certifacte to Gage's Men's Shop and 2 tickets to the Arean Player's "God's Trombones" production.

Second runner-up Nathaniel Morris received a $25 gift certificate to Brager-Gutman's Department Store and a free haircut, shave and facial at the Park Heights Barber Shop.

All winners received a one-year free subscription to the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN.

Mr. Murphy presented the prizes to the winners. There were many congratualtions all around and fathers and their guests lingered to enjoy the rest of the evening.

Hostesses for the affair were Wanda Turner, Brenda Loving and Denise Dorsey, of the AFRO-AMERICAN staff.

Other AFRO staff members present were Portia Badham, Sam Widgeon, Bernie Alexander and Ralph Matthews, Managing Editor.

Pattie Hodges, AFRO staffwirter was cochairperson for the event.
