

6. The Board of Trustees shall establish the positions and fix the salaries and emoluments of the executive head of the college and of the heads of departments, officers, teachers, instructors and other officers and employees. The administrative and teaching staffs of Morgan College shall, upon the transfer, become the administrative and teaching staffs of Morgan State College for the ensuing year, subject to such changes as the Board may find it necessary to make for good cause shown; and thereafter, appointments to said staffs shall be made as provided in Section 8 of this Article.

7. The executive head of the college shall be elected by the Board of Trustees. He may attend all meetings of the Board. By and with his advice, the Board shall determine and regulate the courses of instruction in the college, but no instruction, sectarian in religion or partisan in politics, shall be permitted in any department. The Board may confer such appropriate degrees as it may determine.

8. The executive head of the college shall have authority, subject to the approval of the Board, to give general direction to the work of the institution in all of its departments. He shall have power to appoint the heads of departments and such other professors, teachers, instructors and other officers and employees of the college to the positions established by the Board of Trustees, and he shall define their duties and supervise the performance thereof. The Board of Trustees shall have power to remove from office any of said persons when, in the judgment of the Board, the good of the college requires it.

9. All persons holding degrees from Morgan College shall be classed as alumni of the State Institution, and the general and local alumni associations of Morgan College shall be recognized by the State institution. The rank and status of each student of Morgan College, as certified by the dean and approved by the president thereof, shall be accepted by the State College as the basis for the organization of the students.

10. The Attorney-General of the State shall be the legal adviser of the Board of Trustees, and shall institute, prosecute and defend all suits of their behalf.

11. If the transfer contemplated in the foregoing sections of this Article takes place, all monies appropriated by the General Assembly of Maryland for the current
