DISCO TIME — Lisa Green and Richard Owings do a lively disco dance at the graduation celebration party held for Susan Hunt at The Forum on Friday, June 13.

ENJOYING THE SCENE at Susan Hunt's graduation party hosted at The Forum on Friday, June 13 are Darryl Carrington and Jill Carter.

The Forum on Primrose Ave., was the scene for the gala graduation party hosted for Susan L. Hunt by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward O. Hunt (Ruth) on Friday, June 13 from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Susan, a June-1980 graduate of The Roland Park Country School, was beautifully frocked for her gala in a white, silk chantung, oriental-style pantsuit with gold lame piping on the jacket to match the blouse underneath. Her outfit had been designed for her by Korea.

The many young guests who came out to celebrate with Susan enjoyed a delicious buffet of Swedish meatballs, egg rolls, corned beef mini-sandwiches, miniature pizzas, Chipese hot dogs, munchies and fruit punch.

A large, white, sheet cake, encrusted with red roses, inscribed 'Congratulations — Susan's Graduation' which sported a decorative cap and diploma on top, was the colorful centerpiece for the lavish buffet tables.

Music for dancing was provided by Gene "Goody 2 Shoes" Goodall, disco disc jockey, and everybody danced.

Susan, who will enter Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., in September as a pre-med student, made a strikingly statuesque and radiant hostess-honoree as she mingled with her friends.

Assisting as hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Jacqueline Chambers, Mrs. Valetta Brown and Mrs. Katie Grove.

Among those attending the gala were:

Monica Hunt, the honoree's sister; Laurie Williams, Jennifer Nutt, Sally Young, Sherri Goodall, Yuette Morris, Lora Hargrove, Clarice Jones, Talmira Hill, Felicia Hill;

Also Florence Edeline, Virginia Harrison, Melinda Hartley, Kimberly Chambers, Jacqueline Hunt, Tommie Duncan, Angela Burnett, Jill Carter, Sissy Murphy, Mary Russo;

Also Kathe Hammond, Renata Sheffey, Sally Strott, Angie Patterson, Devy Patterson, Marcie Holmes, Ami Gaston, Trina Howard, Lisa Fulton, Judith Fitzgerald;

Also Melanie Burke, Lisa Green, Sally Adams, Kellie Taylor, Missy Rea, Lizzy Heuisler, Susan Phinney, Kathy Connor;

Susie Miller, Whitney Brown, Denene Snowden, Jan Suter, Patricia Wilson;

Also Mark Hunt, (honoree's brother); Clayton Cowan, Ricky Wartzman, Garth Kilburn, Mike Tillman, Clyde Bessicks, Latty Naylor, Richard Edwards, Bret Ball, Charles Howard;

Also David Pipkin, Edward Collie, Jr., Robert Sherrod, Darryl Carrington, Paul Tohrey, Lance Brown, Patrick Jarosinski, Cleve Thompson, Adam Scott, Robert Haley;

And Ted Russell, Brian Giles, Ted Chambers, Grant Cochran, Michael Mc Geady, Kevin Johnson, Marvin Hall, Anthony Cottrell, Glenford Hynsen.

Les Grandes Dames host colorful Hawaiian Luau

LIVING IT UP — Dancing to the music of the Dennis Fisher Band at the Hawaiian Luau hosted at the Pikesville Hilton on Saturday, June 21 by Les Grandes Dames are Earl Anderson and Ms. Barbara Mitchell.

It was Hawaiian Luau time at the Pikesville Hilton on Saturday, June 21.

From 1 until 5 p.m., members of Les Grandes Dames, a Social-Civic-Cultural club of Baltimore, played host to over 200 guests who gathered, there for the fun, which was a celebration of the club's third anniversary.

The food was a smorgasbord of delicacies — spare ribs, chicken, string beans, rice, beef — to name a few — all done up Hawaiian style.

The centerpiece of each table was a pineapple with a lotus blossom on top.

There were lots of sippables on hand to quench the thirst, with the favorite being pina colodas.

Guests were both festive and colorful as they came decked out in cheerful, eye-catching prints and flowers in keeping with the Hawaiian motif.

Many ladies wore flowers in their hair as lovely as those in the designs of their clothes.

Many fellows wore shirts which matched the dresses of their ladies. Everyone received a lei, which added to the festiveness of the occasion.

Music for dancing was provided by the Dennis Fisher Band, replete with dynamic vocalist.

Members and guests kept the floor hot with both disco and latin-style dancing.

Many Dames and their hubbies had spent Friday night in the hotel and several members

'Friends of Pete Rawlings' host moonlight cruise

By Pattie Hodges
AFRO Staff Writer

Friends of Howard 'Pete' Rawlings were hosts at a gala "cruise down the bay" aboard the Port Welcome on Sunday, June 15th.

'Pete', a member of the Maryland House of Delegates for the past two years, was recognized for his outstanding achievement in and for the community.

Delegate Rawlings was recently appointed by Governor Hughes to the Advisory Council of the Legal Services Corporation of Maryland.

He is also a member of the 1980 Maryland Desegration Task Force where he is a strong advocate for the enhancement of black colleges and universities.

"Boogeying" to pulsating disco sounds spun by Ron Carter, were some 200 persons, braving the pending thunder storm and high winds.

Among those well wishers were: Delegates John Douglass and Walter Dean; Arthur Murphy, political strategist behind the successful campaigns of Norman Reeves and William Murphy; Attorney Anthony Robinson; Harry Smith, Urban Affairs Department head at the Community College of Baltimore; Terry Taylor, recently elected Kennedy delegate to the 1980 Democratic Convention; Dr. & Mrs. John Bonas of the Washington based Institute for Services to Education; Dr. Gail Thomas, Johns Hopkins University;

Also Dr. Charles Simmons, president of the newly formed black private college, Sojourn - Douglass College; Mr. & Mrs. Nathaniel K. Smith, president of the Maryland NAACP and Ed Snowden, public relations representative for the Bethlehem Steel Corporation.

Friends of 'Pete' Yvonne Archer, Christine Bland, Marion Bonaparte, Victor Bonaparte, Elizabeth Brooks, Barbara Craig, Tony Fulton, Judith Kitz, Laverne Lima, Jean Sankies, Rebecca Scott, Dorothy Taylor and Lisa Williams, also joined in the merriment while making sure guests enjoyed a delicious buffet of chicken and various salads and open bar.

As the Port Welcome pulled into dock, committee members were urged to have a 2nd annual
