

such corporation; (3) the business in which the applicant has been engaged for the year next preceding the date of the application, and, if employed by another, the name or names and address or addresses of such employer or employers; (4) such information as the Insurance Commissioner may require of applicants to enable him to determine their trustworthiness and competency to transact the business of public adjuster or public adjuster solicitor in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public.

(g) The Insurance Commissioner shall in order to determine the trustworthiness and competency of such applicant for a certificate of authority to act as a public adjuster or public adjuster solicitor, require such applicant to submit to a written examination.

(h) An application for an adjuster's certificate of authority must be signed and verified by the applicant and, if made by a partnership or association, by each member thereof and if made by a corporation by each officer and director thereof to be authorized thereby to act as an adjuster.

(i) A corporation, association or partnership to which a certificate of authority shall have been issued by the Insurance Commissioner under this section may at any time make an application to the Insurance Commissioner for the issuance of a supplemental certificate of authority authorizing additional officers or directors of the corporation or members of the partnership or association to act as public adjusters, or as public adjuster solicitors, and the Insurance Commissioner may thereupon issue to such corporation, association or partnership a supplemental certificate accordingly upon the payment of an additional fee for each member or officer or director thereby authorized to act as an adjuster.

(j) Whenever the Commissioner shall be satisfied that an applicant for, or a holder of, a certificate of authority (1) has violated any provisions of this Article, or (2) has made a material misstatement in the application for such certificate, or (3) has engaged in fraudulent or dishonest practices, or (4) has demonstrated his incompetency or untrustworthiness to transact the business of a public adjuster, or public adjuster solicitor, the Commissioner may reject the application or revoke the certificate, as the case may be, or may suspend the certificate for such length of time as he may think proper; provided, however, that before any such action shall be taken by the Commissioner he shall give the applicant or holder of the certificate, as the case may be, ten days' written notice of the charges preferred against him and an opportunity to be heard thereon. The final action of the Commissioner in rejecting an application or in revoking or suspending a certificate shall be evidenced by a written notice to the applicant or
