

established for a period of one or more years, and the State Forester has made his current annual study and tabulation of forest fire reports as required in Section 50 of this Article, he is of the opinion that there is no longer a need for regulating the use of fire in the open air within such fire prevention area, the State Forester may set aside the designation of special fire prevention area, taking such means as in his opinion are proper to inform the residents of said area that the requirements of Section 49 of this Article with regard to setting, maintenance or increase of fire in the open air are no longer in effect.

52. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of the inconsistency. All of the provisions of this sub-title shall apply in Harford County only and to no other Counties. Nothing in this Act shall apply to open fires made by railroads within their right of way, provided such fires are supervised or left in such a condition that they will not endanger adjoining property; or to open fires made for the purpose of heating water or other materials, or cooking for domestic use.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1941.

Approved May 26, 1941.

CHAPTER 891.

(House Bill 330)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 445 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title "Roads", as the same was enacted by Chapter 424 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1939, and to add two new sections to said Article to be known as Sections 448A and 448B, said amendments to Section 445 and said new sections providing for the appointment of a County Roads Engineer; prescribing the minimum width of rights-of-way to be secured; and further providing that in all new or reconstruction work which is estimated to cost more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), it must be first submitted to public bids.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 445 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County", sub-title
