

(b) Manufacturers and dealers shall keep a record of all explosives shipped, purchased or sold by them, which records shall include the name and address of each consignee, vendor or vendee, the date of each shipment, sale or purchase and the amount and kind of explosives shipped, sold or purchased. Such record shall be open for inspection by duly authorized agents of the licensing authority and by all Federal, State and local law enforcement officers at all times. Upon request, not oftener than once in each calendar month, a copy of such record shall be furnished to the Commissioner in such form as he shall prescribe.

248. Sale to Unlicensed Persons. No dealer shall sell, barter, give or dispose of explosives to any person who does not hold a license to possess explosives issued under the provisions of this Act.

249. Revocation; Term of License; Fees.

(a) Any license issued hereunder may be revoked by the official issuing the same on any ground specified herein as a ground for denying an application for such license.

(b) All licenses issued hereunder shall expire on the last day of each calendar year unless sooner revoked.

(c) Each application for a license hereunder shall be accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed, which fee shall be returned in the event such application is denied. The license fees shall be as follows:

Manufacturer's license, Ten Dollars;
Dealer's license, Five Dollars;
Possessor's license, One Dollar.

In the event that explosives are required by farmers for agricultural purposes and such farmer secures a certificate on form approved or prescribed by the Commissioner from the County Agent of the county in which he resides the license required herein shall be dispensed with provided the seller and buyer comply with all the other provisions of this Act.

The fees for manufacturers' and dealers' licenses shall be paid over by the Commissioner to the State Treasury. The fees for possessors' licenses shall be retained by the Clerks, and accounted for as other fees of their respective offices.

250. Appeals. The action of the Commissioner, or local licensing authority, in revoking or refusing to grant a license for the manufacture, sale or possession of explosives shall be evidenced by a written notice given to the license-holder or applicant, as the case may be. Such notice shall set forth the ground or grounds on which the action of the Commissioner or local licensing authority is based and shall be deemed to
