Flair Studio presents Fashion Explosion

SUPER FOR SUMMER is this elegant wispy after 5 two piece dress, designed by Gloria Jennings and modeled by Ms. Andrea Bland, directress of Flair Studio at the Studio's Fashion Explosion presentation held at the Gatsby recently.

Flair Studio and Gatsby's recently played host to a lavish Father's Day fashion explosion and cocktail party. The theme was 'My Heart Belongs to Daddy'.

Among the featured designers were Sandra Wilkens, recipient of the 1978 Designer's Award presented her in Atlanta, Georgia.

Sandra's fashions highlighted Parisian couture for day and evening, resort and bathing wear suitable for tropical cruising.

An example of Ms. Wilkens' total talents were displayed in a plaid silk suit worn by Andrea Bland.

Gloria Jennings another designer of equal talent displayed fashions in fabrics that ran the color spectrum, splattering an array of coloring for the evening in silks, crepe de chines, georgettes and taffetas.

Many of Mrs. Jennings creations emphasized pleated tops and bottoms. Ms. Jennings recently returned from New York City where she was a participant in the National Fashion and Boutique Show. During her engagement there her booth attracted the attention of representatives from Vogue and Essence. Gloria Jennings is one who makes a definite statement about color!

Mary Buster and Jean Taylor, a team of local designers who throughout the years have added highlights to the Provident Hospital Fashion Show, an annual show that attracts the most fashion conscious Baltimorians also displayed their talent. Their fashions catered to the more sophisticated woman who is young at heart.

Garments for the men were designed by Ekello Harrid, trend setter and eye dazzler who appeals to both men and women in any audience.

Ekello's tailored garments and chic designs were assets to the Father's Day showing.

Models included Andrea Bland, Pat Bowley, Quianne Cooke, Dorothy Francis, Artartus Jenkins of Washington, D.C., Val Kellam, Robin Mariano, Carolyn Sessions, Gay Stewart, Eric Tharrington, possible candidate for Ebony Fashion Fair along with Carolyn and Alvin White and Gwen Patillo.

A professional audience enjoyed progressive jazz, cocktails and an atmosphere of serenity with a topping of exciting fashions.

The commentator for the evening was Willia Bland whose expertise in fashion coordination and fashion production has proclaimed her as the most influential in this area for over a decade.

La Fontaine Bleu, Erdman Avenue, was the scene on Thursday, June 26 for the Crab Feast and Dance hosted by Iota Chapter, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority.

It was the sorority's chapter closing activity for the year and what a finale!

The sorors put together an evening filled with fun and frolic for their 475 guests, who, dressed in casual attire, enjoyed a variety of treats.

To please the taste buds there were lots of hot steamed crabs and beer to accompany them. In addition to the crabs, guests feasted on a continuous hot and cold buffet, all very delicious, throughout the evening.

Such fantastic music was provided by disco disjockey Abe Riley that it kept everyone in constant motion on the dance floor.

As a special highlight a guest at each table who had the lucky number 3 on his or her ticket stub received a fifth of champagne.

How generous of the sorors to gift their guests with such a delightful sippable on such a hot night.

It was a lively affair, which lasted from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. and the general consensus of all present was "We had a ball."

Proceeds of the affair will go to the sorority's scholarship fund. Chairperson for the activity was Soror Arabella Ross. Co-chairperson was Soror Louise Turks.

Other members of the planning committee were: Sorors Marie Dowell, sorority basileus; Thelma Addison, Imogene Douglas, Fannie Ewell, Mary L. Flournoy, Veta Greig, Pattie E. Halloway;

Also Josephine Maxwell, Ovella D. Queen, Bertha A. Sembly, Betty Shelton, Mary D. Silva, E. Monterey Williams, first anti-basileus; Elaine Alexander, epistolus; Margaret Yates, Elizabeth Day, second anti-basileus; Joan Smith, Lenora

Big Daddy's opens — is instant hit

By Pattie Hodges
AFRO Staff Writer

Monday, June 30 and Tuesday, July 1 marked the grand opening of 'Big Daddy's' (formerly Wongs) at 5509 Reisterstown Road.

With searchlight beaming outside and valet parking service kept continuously busy, owner and host George E. Mitchell, (also owner of the Electric Eye, 6307 Reisterstown Road,) and hostess Sharon Roberson greeted 400 guests who came out to savor the flavor of this new establishment.

They enjoyed the delicious fresh fruit bar, hot miniature spare ribs and chiken bits, cocktails and beer.

Many ordered dinner, with selections from a menu that now boasts a combination of Chinese-American and soul foods.

The front dining room, decorated with all rattan walls, very cozy, now has a bar for easy access to sippables, and a bandstand which featured fantastic live music by Ralph Fisher Quintet on opening night.

Live music will be a continued feature at 'Big Daddy's' every week from Thursday through Sunday.

Also featured on a continuing basis will be the Happy Hour, held Monday through Friday from 4 until 7 p.m. and on Saturday from 2 until 6 p.m., at which time drinks will be a bargain.

The middle dining room, is still used strictly for dining, conversation and listening to the band.

The back room is now a disco area, with mirrored ceiling, special disco lighting and with red lights behind its windows which give the room a rosy glow.

Disco music is manned by Anthony Tarver, disco D.J. On opening night the many who gathered in this area kept the floor hot with the latest disco steps.

Among those on the scene for opening night were businessmen Allan Quille, Leroy Dyett, Ron Thomas of McDonald's at Cold Spring Lane and Reisterstown Road, William 'Little Willie' Adams, George Boone of Boone's Furniture and Appliances and Larry Smith, co-owner of D'Joint.

Media people on hand were Oprah Winfrey of WJZ-TV, Curt Anderson, WMAR-TV anchorman, Chuck Woodson, Melvin Williams, and William 'Moon Man' Bacote of WEBB Radio;

Also Tim Watts, Sandy Mallory and Larry Wilson of V-103 Radio, Ann Sagi, Pam Widgeon, Portia Badham and this writer, of the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN newspapers.

Mitchell reports that Big Daddy's has been jammed with people each night since its opening, with huge crowds on July 4 and 5.

On July 6 there was a fashion show presented there by Gloria Williams, originally of Trinidad, who came down from Canada to air original designs from Africa, Trinidad and Canada in swim and beach wear.

Looks like Big Daddy's is off and running with a terrific start.

Jack and Jill inducts new members

At its June closing meeting the Baltimore Chapter of Jack and Jill of America, Inc. inducted ten families in a candlelit ceremony conducted by Mrs. Shirley Hill, Chapter president.

The mothers inducted after their orientation by the membership committee were Mesdames Stephanie Brown, Jannette Dates, Marie Francis, Leah Hasty, Karen Horsey, Liz Johnson, Gloria Marrow, Jeannette Smith, Sondra Timoll and Brenda Willis.

One of the founders of the chapter, Mrs. Blanche Hughes, and a former member Mrs. Esther LaForest Brown, congratulated the inductees and gave remarks.

During the meeting recognition was given to those members who contributed to the success of the chapter's program this year.

Receiving Certificates of Appreciation from the president were Mesdames Romaine Ball, Anastatia Benton, Elizabeth Brooks, Jamesetta Brown, Laura Byrd, Joy Carter, Jacqueline Chambers, Corrine Coleman, Barbara Davis, Catherine Howard, Mabel Hubbard, Ruth Hunt, Flowwie Johnson, Joan Johnson, Gwendolyn Lindsay, Judith Neale and Rita Selby.

Jack and Jill teens who graduate from high school and from the chapter's program this year were also given certificates and gifts.

They are Elise Bridges, Alison Davis, Susan Hunt, Kevin Johnson, Jeffrey Neale, Keith Powell and Cecelia Quarles.

The age groups were then awarded certificates by Mrs. Judith Neale, vice president, for their participation in educational, civic, cultural, recreational and social activities.

The 13-14 age group received the certificate for being the most active age group and the 15 and up age group was the second most active age group.

The other age group, 3 through 12, were also recognized for their meaningful activities this year.
