

shall at the same time fill out on a stub attached to the license blank the name and address of the licensee and shall then detach said stub and mail same to the State Game Warden the first day of each and every month in each year. Such license shall be void on the thirty-first day of December of each year following date of issuance.

For the purpose of this Act, a resident shall be a person who has resided in this State permanently for a period of not less than six (6) months.

Said licensee shall insert his or her name on said license in ink at the time of purchase. Said license shall not be transferable and if used or presented by any person other than the person to whom it was issued such license and button or badge shall be confiscated by the State Game Warden, any Deputy Game Warden, Constable, or other officer, who shall find such license being used.

87. Clerk's Duties. The Clerks of Courts or other persons authorized to sell such license shall retain as compensation for issuing the above licenses the sum of Twenty-five Cents (25¢) and shall on the first day of June, 1941, and on the first day of each and every month thereafter transmit to the Comptroller of the State all monies received by them for licenses, and the amount received by the Comptroller shall be placed to the credit of a separate fund known as "The State Game Protection Fund", and shall be disbursed by the Comptroller from time to time on warrants signed by the State Game Warden and countersigned by a representative of the Commission. The monies in said fund to the credit of the Angler's License shall be used solely for the salaries and expenses and for scientific investigations, protection, and propagation of game fish and fresh water fishes.

In case a person shall lose his angler's license and button or badge, he may make affidavit as to the date of issuance, number, description, as provided therein giving name of Clerk or person who issued said license, and with this information the Commission is authorized to issue a duplicate angler's license and button or badge at the cost of Fifty Percent (50%) of the original cost.

The Commission is hereby authorized to issue annually, not to exceed Twenty (20) complimentary angler's licenses and buttons or badges to the following persons: (a) The Chief Executive of the United States, (b) the Governor of any State, (c) to authorized officials of the Game and Fish Departments of other States. Such licenses shall not be transferable and shall be issued without fee on such forms as the Commission may designate.
