

paid additional salaries to said teachers, over and above the regular State minimum salaries payable during said period, equal to or in excess of $140 per teacher, then the State will reimburse such County or Baltimore City to the extent of $27 per teacher, out of any funds appropriated in the budget for said purpose.

SEC. 1A. And be it further enacted, That employees of the Unemployment Compensation Board, who receive no compensation from State funds other than that derived from Federal sources, shall be paid the same additional compensation as if they were State employees and their compensation were paid from State funds, provided that the Federal Government consents to the payment of such additional compensation from Federal funds or from State funds derived from Federal sources.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any employee covered by the provisions of this Act has not been employed for at least one year prior to July 1, 1943, he shall receive one-twelfth of said payment for each month of his employment; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any teacher covered by this Act.

SEC. 2A. And be it further enacted, That the regular employees in the offices of the Registers of Wills and Clerks of the Courts throughout the State shall be considered as State employees for the purposes of this Act and shall be entitled to the additional payments provided for such employees by this Act according to the terms and conditions herein provided for other State employees and such employees shall receive said additional payments herein provided for on July 1, 1943 and August 1, 1943, such payments to be made from funds appropriated therefor in the Budget.

SEC. 2B. And be it further enacted, That the additional payments provided for by this Act shall not be paid to any employees who receive maintenance as part of their compensation; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any police employee of the Department of State Police.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the additional payments provided for the foregoing employees under the Act shall not be liable for any contributions to any retirement system.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943