

successor is duly elected and qualified. There shall also be selected on the first Tuesday in August in the year nineteen hundred and forty-three by the qualified voters of each of the three wards of the town of Brunswick one councilman from each of said wards who shall have certain qualifications as hereinafter prescribed, and who shall hold office for a term of two years, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified; and on the first Tuesday in August in the year nineteen hundred and forty-four and on the first Tuesday in August in each and every year thereafter there shall be selected by the qualified voters of each of the three wards of the town of Brunswick one councilman from each ward, who shall hold office for a term of two years, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The Mayor and Council shall provide the official ballots, which shall include distinct ballots for each ward in said town, for such election or elections, the form and arrangement of such ballot to be as they shall by order prescribe, except that all candidates for the same office shall be grouped together and the names shall be arranged alphabetically on said ballot. The Mayor and Council shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, at each polling place or at one general polling place on the day of said election to the judges of election before the opening hour, the said registries of voters and sufficient number of the said official ballots, not less, however, than the number of registered voters at each polling place or ward, and one of such ballots shall be handed by the judges of election to the voters as they shall apply for them for the purpose of voting and shall be accepted by the judges and when properly marked counted in canvassing the voter provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent candidates for the various offices to have sample ballots, to be provided at their own expense, for instructing the voters. After each name on said ballot, or after any proposition or question submitted to the decision of the voters, and to the right thereof, shall be a square upon which the voter shall make a cross-mark to indicate the candidate of his choice, or whether he shall be in favor of or opposed to the question or proposition voted upon. If any voter cannot read or write, or is disabled by reason of any physical infirmity, he may ask one of the judges of election to mark his ballot as he desires. When a voter offers to vote the judges shall ascertain by reference if his name is on the registry of voters, and the clerks shall enter in poll books the names and residences of the voters for the respective wards as the ballots are delivered to them respectively. The Council shall also provide booths or compartments for secret voting similar to those provided under the general election law of