

ordinance pursuant thereto, shall have the right to appeal, except as otherwise herein specifically provided, within thirty days thereafter to the Circuit Court of Calvert County, and shall have the right, if he so elect, to a trial by jury, upon giving ample security for the payment of such fine, penalty, forfeiture and costs as may be adjudged against him in said Circuit Court; provided that when any fine is collected because of the violation of any ordinance of Chesapeake Beach, it shall be forthwith transmitted by the officer collecting the same to the Treasurer of Chesapeake Beach.

63. All ordinances of the Council shall take effect from the date of passage unless otherwise provided therein. The Clerk shall post a copy of each ordinance at the Town Hall and all ordinances shall be open to public inspection.

64. All elections conducted under the provisions of this sub-title shall be subject to the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act of Maryland, in so far as the same may be applicable to the provisions of this sub-title.

65. The fee in all the streets, alleys, lanes, parks and public grounds in the town of Chesapeake Beach, or such portion thereof as at the date of the passage of this Act may be the property of the Chesapeake Beach Railway Company, shall be and remain in said company; subject, however, at all times, for municipal and police purposes, to the control of the Council of Chesapeake Beach, who may establish, maintain, alter and repair the same, and make such improvements thereof and thereon as may from time to time become necessary and as herein provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all ordinances, resolutions, actions, contracts, permits and other official acts passed, made, issued or done by the Commissioners of Chesapeake Beach shall remain in force and have the same legal effect as when enacted, passed, issued or done and all officers and agents of the town heretofore elected or appointed shall retain office for the terms to which they were respectively elected or appointed, notwithstanding the passage of this Act, the intention of this Act being not to repeal or interfere with any provision of any of the ordinances, resolutions, contracts, permits or actions heretofore passed, issued or done, unless they be in conflict herewith.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law necessary for the immediate personification of health and general welfare of the town of Chesapeake
