AKA's Epsilon Omega Chapter hosts Reclamation Activity

1980 AKA PROBATION LINE — AKA Sorority, Alpha Delta Chapter, Morgan University, who were on the probation line in 1969 celebrated 21 years during the Reclamation Activity hosted recently by the Epsilon Omerga Chapter at its June Chapter reunion meeting. (Seated L to R are): Sofors Brenda Saunders, past Alpha Delta basileus, Idell Pugh, basileus, Epsilon Omega; Dollie Walker, past graduate advisor; Edna Campbell, past supreme basileus; Mildred Seaborne, past graduate advisor; (Standing L to R): Sorors Ruth Davis Gertrude Cooper, Janet Wolfridge, Alverta Tucker, Deloris Greene, Naomi Peters, Emily Roberts, Shirley Pinkett, Gloria Brown, Jeanne Robinson, Adrienne Burnett, Clara Burgess, Bessie Oliver and Erma DeBeal.

As an ending activity for its Spring Reclamation Phase, the Membership Committee of Epsilon Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., planned to share with its sister chapter its reunion time.

This year's reunion was celebrated at the June chapter meeting with members from the December, 1969 Probation Line, Alpha Delta Chapter, Morgan State University.

The "Line Sorors" attended from area distances encompassing the states from Illinois to New York for their 21st celebration as sorors of Alpha Kappa Alpha.

During the meeting, the guest sorors expressed thoughts of admiration and gratification to Epsilon Omega for providing leadership, guidance and support to the then undergraduate chapter sorors.

The sorors delighted in remembering those "good old days" — the camaraderie, the learning about Alpha Kappa Alpha, the participation in service activities such as The Ivy Follies, South Baltimore Playground Fund, the Cultural Arts Concert Series, the entertaining of residents in local mental institutions and the Annual Homecoming Tea given for alumni and guests at Morgan State.

More importantly, the sorors shared ideas pertinent to living today and what it means to serve at the various chapter levesl.

The ideals and qualities originally intended by the "grand sorors" who conceived Alpha Kappa Alpha served as the impetus for returning to the various chapters with renewed fervor to work "In service to all mankind."

The day culminated at dinner with invited guests representative of Alpha Delta's chapter history at that time.

Thests included Sorors Edna Campbell, Past Supreme Basileus; Mildred Seaborne, Past Basileus Epsilon Omega and Line Banquet Speaker; Dollie Walker and Vernisce Reynolds, Past Graduate Advisors; Brenda Saunders, Past Alpha Delta Basileus; Idell Pugh, current Epsilon Omega Basileus;

Also sorors Ruth Davis, Gertude Cooper and Janet Woolridge, three sorors from the succeeding 1950 line.

The Line sorors in attendance were Clara Skipwith Burgess, Deloris Williams Greene, Erma Kirk DeBeal, Alverta Jones Tucker, Gloria Tucker Brown, Shirley Holland Pinkett, Jeanne Locks Robinson and Emily Ricks Roberts.

Miss Inner City Teen

Lisa Williams, Miss Inner City Teen-1979, told of her rewarding experience as reigning queen, thanked all who had made it possible and gave wishes of good luck to the 1980 contestants.

Crystal Glass sang 'Mama' which they dedicated to all mothers.

And then the moment of moments came — winning time. All contestants got a citation from the mayor.

In the winner's circle as 'Miss Congeniality' was Rose Ann Ward. 'Patron Award' (for having sold the most patron ads) went to Leslie Smith.

Alice Ebb, pageant director, received a plaque of appreciation on behalf of the contestants from Mr. Brister.

Third runner-up was Beverly Simon; second runner-up was Gail Baker.

Tying for first-runner-up spot were Leslie Smith and Robin Paul.

The winner — the queen — the new 'Miss Inner City Teen-1980' is April Michelle Riley.

Overcome with joy, when she was pronounced winner, Miss Riley wept tears of joy and was immediately surrounded by her fellow contestants and family, many of whom wept for joy with her.

She did manage to compose herself enough to be seated on the throne, to be crowned by 1979 queen Lisa Williams, to receive her bouquet, plaque and sash, and trophy, and to take a radiantly happy, walk down the runway.

Lloyd Mitchner, president of the Meritocrats, presented the scholarship award.

Zetas will meet in Memphis

The national meeting of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. will convene in Memphis, Tenn. July 26, through August 1. The seminars, workshops and plenary sessions planned, focus on aspects of the national theme — "Greater Commitment! Greater involvement! Providing New Approaches to Community Outreach Services."

Dr. Janice G. Kissner is national president of the organization. Mayor Richard Arrington (Birmingham, Ala.) will address the public banquet and other prominent national leaders in health, employment, educational, political, and business concerns will provide expert information during the four day conference.

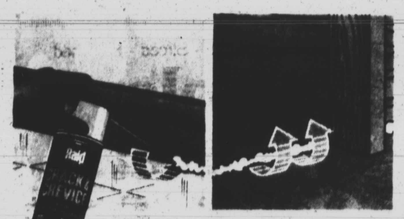
New Raid Crack & Crevice Spray kills crawling bugs where they hide!



Raid's unique extension wand does it. It lets you shoot a powerful bug-killing foam into places bugs can hide—under baseboards, behind counters, between appliances. The hard-to-reach places you couldn't spray before.

And once inside, Raid Crack & Crevice Spray keeps on killing roaches dead for up to 60 days.
