

or commission, the State may, upon first obtaining the consent and approval of any such agency, instrumentality, district or commission, transfer title to the needed portion of any such real or personal property to the State for the use of the State Roads Commission by such instrument or instruments of conveyance as may be appropriate, and may likewise transfer to the Commission total or partial jurisdiction over any such property so conveyed. The Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and accept title to, jurisdiction over, or an interest in any such real or personal property in the manner above outlined and to abide by such terms and conditions of transfer as may be agreed upon as aforesaid. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to modify or impair any contract, commitment, declaration of trust or trust indenture which any such county, municipality, district, commission, agency, instrumentality or political subdivision may have made or entered into with or for the benefit of the United States, any agency or instrumentality thereof, or any bondholders or other obligees of any such county, municipality, district, commission, agency, instrumentality or political subdivision. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit, restrict, or amend the power of condemnation conferred on said Commission elsewhere in this Article nor to create a condition precedent to the exercise of such power.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1943.

Approved May 4, 1943.

CHAPTER 646.

(House Bill 728)

AN ACT to add five new sections to Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County", to be under a new sub-title "Trailers", said new sections to be known as Sections 773A, 773B, 773C, 773D and 773E, and to follow immediately after Section 773 of said Article, relating to the licensing of trailers in Baltimore County, prescribing penalties for violation, authorizing agreements with the United States of America or any agency thereof for fixed annual sums in lieu of license fees, and defining the term "trailer".
