Miss Turner, Duane Boone exchange vows

The beautiful white front campus of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va. was the scene for the recent wedding of Miss Darlene Samuel Turner and Duane Boone, as they exchanged vows in a double-ring ceremony before 300 guests gathered at the Memorial Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Samuel Turner, Rocky Mounty, N.C., is the daughter of Mrs. Dollie Turner, Halifax N.C., and an graduate of Hampton Institute.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Boone Sr., of Howard Park Ave., Baltimore. He is also a graduate of Hampton Institute and is currently employed as a Nuclear Health Physics technician with the Virginia Electric and Power Co.

The bride was radiant in a formal gown of quiana knit with embroidered lace and seed pearls. The fitted bodice featured an empire waistline and straight sleeves with Alencon lace.

Maid of honor was Miss Katrina Turner, sister of the bride, of Greensboro, N.C.

Mrs. Duane Boone
Recent bride

Bridesmaids were Miss Alicia Turner, Halifax, N.C., and Miss Sylvia Turner, Greece, N.Y., both sisters of the bride, along with Miss Dyanne Boone, sister of the bridegroom, Springfield Gardens, N.Y., and Miss Marquita Tyson, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Best man was Douglas Boone Jr., brother of the bridegroom, Framingham, Mass.

Groomsmen, all of whom are Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity brothers of the bridegroom were: Tim Alston III, Hampton, Va.; Thomas Law, Petersburg, Va.; Charles Wilson, Atlantic City, N.J., and Ronald Davenport, Lively, Va.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the Chamberlin Hotel where the newlyweds were honored by family and friends.

The couple honeymooned in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.

Guests from Baltimore included: Messrs. and Mesdames Willie Jackson and William Griffith; Mrs. Joan Powell, Mrs. Eloise Brazwell, James Lightfoot, Henry Lightfoot, Mrs. Emonia Miller, Mrs. Jean Owens, Miss Yvonne Owens, Miss Tammy Boone, Mrs. Flora Johnson, Kenneth Bethea and Miss Kimberley Cox.

Also present were Messrs. and Mesdames Cyrus Boone, East Orange, N.J.; Bradford Boone, Nyack, N.Y.; Benjamin L. Davis, Suffolk, Va.; Michael Davis, Suffolk, Va.;

Also Mrs. Lucille Boone, Hampton, Va., Messrs. and Mesdames Solomon Phillips Jr., Phoebus, Va.; Jasper Jones, Halifax, N.C.; Elgin Lowe, Suffolk, Va.; Mrs. Mildred Tyler, Suffolk, Va., and Mrs. Bernyce Wynn, Suffolk, Va.

Shelby R. Wilson weds William Ferebee

Recently Miss Shelby Renee Wilson, 3000 block Daywalt Ave., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Wilson, was wed to William Melvin Courtney Ferebee, 2200 block Garrison Boulevard, son of Mrs. Corlethia E. Ferebee.

The bride is a graduate of Northwestern High School, attended Strayer Business College and Community College of Baltimore. She is employed by the Department of Human Resources Division of Quality Control.

The bridegroom is a graduate of J. P. Knapp High School in Moyock, N.C., attended Towson State University and has served in the U.S. Army. He is employed at Holiday Inn.

The double-ring ceremony uniting the couple took place at the home of the bride's parents, 3500 block Duvall Ave. with the Rev. Vincent Thompson officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was a picture of loveliness in an ivory self-runner long gown, of French imported Alencon lace with a Queen Anne neckline, which had tapered sleeves of matching applique lace and ivory pearls on the bodice, with an illusive ivory bow in the back, starting at waist and flowing in to a chapel length train trimmed in pearls.

Her headdress was a hat trimmed with ivory Alencon imported lace with matching ivory pearls with an illusive flowing cathedral veiling. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and blue carnations with blue baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Wanda Wilson, sister of the bride, of Baltimore. She wore a gown of mint green, with splits on the sleeves, and a matching jacket and blue baby's breath in her hair. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations with white baby's breath, trimmed with blue and white ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Misses Bernadette Woolford and Vivian Clay, of Baltimore.

They wore powder blue gowns with silk sheer pullover matching jackets with slits on the sleeves, trimmed with dark and light blue silk and satin lace and light blue baby's breath in their hair. They carried bouquets of blue carnations and white baby's breath trimmed with blue and white ribbon.

Flower girl was little Forshia Harris. She wore an ivory Venice Lace dress with white baby's breath in her hair and carried a small bouquet of blue carnations and white baby's breath trimmed with blue and white ribbon.

Best man was William Skinner, Baltimore. Ushers were Conald Hankins, the groom's cousin; Marshall Ferebee, the groom's brother, and Wayne Brooks, the bride's brother, all of Baltimore.

The ring bearer was Master Reginald J. Wilson Jr., nephew of the bride.

The bride's home was lovely, with urns of fresh flowers banking the fireplace, and the stairwell draped with white satin wedding bells and bows.

Hostess and director was Miss June Hankins, the groom's cousin, of Baltimore. Soloists at the wedding was Roderick Ferebee, the groom's brother, who sang "For Once In My Life."

Following the wedding a reception was held in La Fontaine Bleu's Crystal Room, Erdman Ave.

Reception fare was a catered sit-down formal candle-lit dinner for 100 guests, entertained by the La Fontaine Bleu Band.

After dinner there was a hot and cold buffet with a variety of delicious desserts and flaming fruit flambe. There was also continuous open bar.

Prior to the couple's leave-taking they changed into going away attire and danced their farewell dance with guests looking on.

The bride danced with her father to the tune of "Daddy's Little Girl."

The bride chose for her travel to Moyock, N.C. honeymoon spot, (where they would visit the bridegroom's grandparents) an ivory silk dress with matching ivory satin shoes.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ferebee are at home in the Cedonia section of Baltimore.

Guests included Clara Herring, Elkton, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, grandparents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. John Ferrer, Ms. Norma Wood, Mrs. Mildred Jones and family; Miss Karen Tucker and mother Miss Cheryl Ross and guest; Miss Eloise Hankins;

Also Mrs. Tanga Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Bradd Hall, Reuben Bell, Michael Forbes, Donald Holley, Miss Susie Boulware, General and Mrs. Morris Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Miriam Thrower, Mr. and Mrs. Leverne Eskridge, Conrad Hurley and guest, Ms. Iris Gatewood and daughter;

Also Mrs. Pam Goode, Ms. Katherine Ward, Lawrence Jones, Ms. June Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. Mary Dawkins, Mrs. Beulah Edwards, the bride's sister; Ms. Ruth Shirelle, Roderick Ferebee, Houston Brooks;

Also Ms. Katherine Barksdale, Mrs. Mary Trusty, Mrs. Nancy Skinner, Mrs. Yvonne Winn, Mrs. Corletha Moore, Mrs. Edith Mosby, Mrs. Clara Herring, Frank Devaughn, Marvin Brooke, Cameron Brooke, Dietrick Ferron and Phyllis Jessup and guest.

NEWLYWEDS Mr. and Mrs. William M. C. Ferebee smile radiantly following their recent wedding at the home of Mrs. Ferebee's parents on Duvall Ave. The bride is the former Miss Shelby Renee Wilson.
