Joanne Jefferson is AFRO 'Carrier of the Month'

AFRO photo by Mark Gall

"AFRO CARRIER OF THE MONTH" — Joanne Camille Jefferson was named "AFRO Carrier of the Month" for July at a ceremony held Wednesday, Aug. 27.

Joanne Jefferson was the first girl carrier to be named AFRO Carrier of the Month.

She has been an AFRO carrier for four months and her distributor, Titus Garrett, speaks very highly of Joanne.

She attends Rutland Elementary School and her favorite subjects are math, English, and music. Joanne has received awards in music, math and for perfect attendance.

She was presented a plaque by circulation assistant Grace Singletary at a ceremony held at the office of the AFRO.

A corsage was presented to Mrs. Annie Jefferson, Joanne's mother. The flower was given on behalf of the AFRO-AMERICAN in recognition of the support she has given to her daughter as an AFRO carrier.

Joanne was greeted by AFRO officers John H. Murphy III, chairman of the board and Freddie Howard, vice vice president, production.

Family members present for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jefferson (Annie); sisters Esther, Taunya, Ericka and Mrs. Clifra Gibsoon.

Also present were Al Tyler, national circulation manager, Charles Baker, circulation zone manager.

Provident seeking members

The Auxiliary of Provident Hospital Inc. is seeking new members. Male and female 14 years of age and older are invited to join.

Meetings will be held the second Thursday of each month beginning Sept. 11 in the Provident Hospital Emanuel Chambers Auditorium, 7 p.m.

Some of its major projects include serving as official hostesses of the hospital, the management and staffing of the Gift Shop, the annual Mother's Day Fashion Show and Luncheon and serving as volunteers.

Those interested in membership should call the Auxiliary office beginning Sept. 16, any Tuesday, 6 to 8 p.m. at 225 - 2036.

Hospitalized AFRO employee improving

Ms. Patricia Taylor, an AFRO- AMERICAN Newspaper employee, who received serious injuries June 29 in Druid Hill Park, when the car she was sitting in was smashed by a tree after a tornado struck the Baltimore zoo, is still confined to University Hospital.

Ms. Taylor's spine was injured, and a hospital spokesman stated, "Ms. Taylor has shown improvement and is in satisfactory condition."

Ms. Taylor celebrated her 29th birthday Aug. 24, with relatives and close friends who visited her at the hospital. The hospital spokesman said among those at the party were Ms. Pat Paletwho is Ms. Taylor's nurse and the Rev. Leonard Hicks, her pastor.

Others who attended the party were Mrs. Dora Hicks, Deacon Herschell Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Joseph A. Taylor, Jerome Oliver, Jerome Oliver Jr., Mrs. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Alana Robinson and Mrs. Gloria Redd.

Also, Maureen Holbrook, Muro Basilio, Dale Robinson, Ms. Laverne Johnson, Ms. Emma Johnson, Nicole Robinson, Ms. Patricia Wilson, Ms. Ruth Washington, Ms. Naomi Thomas, Thomas Kimball, Ms. Sue Crawford and Ms. Jean Brown.

The party ended with a prayer and a song requested by Ms. Taylor enttitled, "The Lord Has Brought Me From A Mighty Long Way."
