Deltas begin their 1980-81 activities

A number of activities, events and exciting commitments were discussed and planned at the first meeting of the Baltimore Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Inc.

An interesting announcement for those Delta followers. Soror Frances Flippen has resigned from her post as Deputy Director after seven years of faithful service.

A breakfast will be held in her honor on Sept 28, 1980 at 9 a.m. in the Continental Room on Embassy Row in Washington, D.C.

Baltimore Alumni Chapter wishes to announce the following activities designed for community interest and participation . .

The Ebony Fashion Fair presents "The Free Spirit." This display of fashion elegance will be aired on Sun., Oct. 12, at Morgan State University in the Murphy Auditorium.

There will be shows at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. for ticket information contact chairperson Mary Demory 323-1239 or co-chairperson Marian D. Foster 655-5401.

Proceeds from this affair are used to provide deserving students with scholarship. This is a DST production.

Students, here is an invitation to be nosey! Look into MEOC (Maryland Educational Opportunity Center). This center can provide you with important information on college admissions, financial aid, career opportunities, returning to high school, and preparation for high school equivalency tests.

Visit anyone of these locations or call today — 2700 Gwynns Falls Parkway — 728-3400; 2227 St. Paul Street — 243-3009; 3930 Reisterstown Road — 367-1429; 1114 N. Mount Street — 523-6930; or 100 N. Ann Street — 675-0785.

The Maryland Educational Opportunity Center is sponsored by Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. and funded by the Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare.

A major thrust of the 1980-81 year, as presented by DST national president, Mona Bailey, is to participate in Operation Big Vote.

This activity is designed to educate the public on the importance of registering to vote and then to motivate them to exercise that right.

In support of this thrust, the Maryland Council of Deltas will sponsor a Political Awareness Workshop on Oct. 18, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Jenkins Hall at Morgan State University. Some of the topics will be: The effects of the vote on the black family, youth, employment, crime and education. Panelists will include Judge Watts and Bell, Congressman Parren Mitchell, City Councilmen Norman Reeves and Kwesi Mfume, Billy Murphy and others.

For information concerning tickets contact Hazel Parks at 945-3330.

Congratulations and roses to the following sorors for their accomplishments and contributions . . . Vashasti McKenzie will be honored on September 20, in Washington, D.C. for her work in public service. September 20th has been proclaimed "Vashasti McKenzie Day" by Mayor Marion Berry.

Soror Rubye Gill is one of the coordinators for the presidential debates to be held at the Baltimore Convention Center.

Soror Kay Gooden received the Big Sister of the Year Award — 1980 from the Big Brothers and sisters of Central Maryland.

Soror Miriam Winborne was named "Technologist of the Year" by the Maryland Society for Medical technology.

This award is given to the technologist who typifies most the ongoingness of the profession and Medical Society.

Ms. Winborne is currently the editor of "She Spectrum" a professional paper for the Maryland Society for Medical Technology. She has also sered as secretary, education coordiantor, and state meeting chairperson.

Last, but certainly not least, Soror Lt. Col. Mary Wallace Hewlett is retiring from the U.S. Army after 20 years of service. She has served in various positions. However she will retire from the position of supervisory staff as Adjutant General at Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority opens season

Alpha, Alpha, Sigma Chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority held its first regular meeting after the summer vacation on Saturday Sept. 7 in the Helen Field Auditorium at 1 p.m., Provident Hospital.

Sorors arrived early and there were greetings of cheer and laughter among the sorors, sincerely expressing their feelings of true sisterhood.

During the Chit-chat period we found out that Soror Emily Bryant traveled extensively in the far East (China); Soror Alice Lee visited the Bahamas, and Sorors Karen Smith and Wanda McAfee were married.

Our newly - elected basileus, Alice Sue Lee, called the meeting to order and presided over the session as there were many activities and programs planned for the coming year.

Some of the highlights of the meeting were:

Greetings from M's Linda Quick, newly-elected director of volunteer services at Provident Hospital. She spoke with the sorors and encourated those who could to volunteer their services in any area they were most interested. (Special interested was related to the library as that area is the one Sigma originated).

Reports from the Boule in Oklahoma City, informed sorors that Ida Washington and Katherine Royston were awarded certificates from the National Body for 40 years of active service and community work.

A Loving Cup Award was presented to Alpha, Alpha, Sigma Chapter for having the best program of the year (79-80) under the leadership of Soror Reba Matthews who was basileus at that time.

Soror Veronica Dingle who was in attendance accepted the award.

Sorors Geradine Dobson and Sarah Rose Discussed plans for our Annual Hawaiian Luau that will be held on October 24, at La Fontaine Bleu.

Soror Pat Mosley reported on Founder's Day plans in November. Plans for a Theatre Party which will come at a later date were given by Soror Betty White.

Soror Delores Routh gave a special warm welcome to both the new and old sorors before the meeting adjourned. A social hour followed which included goodies provided by sorors.

Those in attendance were Sorors: Victoria A. Jones, Geraldine Dobson, Ruth Clayton, Uulia Pittman, Pat Mosley, Rhonda Cooper, Martha Allen, Donnell Moore, Carolyn M. Robinson, Catherine Montgomery, Mabel Walters;

Also Emily B. Bryant, Sharon G. Jones, Frances H. Ellington, Maudesta Jennings, Eliza B. Diggs, Frances W. Dorsey, Gladys M. Brown, Sonia Morton, Ida B. Washington, Hortense Franklin, Julia Medley, Cathering Royston, Vivian Stanfield, Toni Fighman, Cindy Johns, Veronica Dingh;

Mr. and Mrs. John Harry Hurst

Camille Verna Ferguson, 3600 block Rexmere Rd., daughter of Wallace and the late Etta Carter Ferguson was married recently to John Harry Hurst, Camden, N.J., son of Mrs. Fances Hurst of Reform, Ala.

The bride holds a B.A. degree from Pitzer College, Claremont, Calif.; a master's degree from the School of Librarianship, Seattle, Wash. and is a librarian for Enoch Pratt Library, Baltimore, Md.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University with a master's degree from the University of North Carolina and is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at Our Savior Lutheran Church, Baltimore, with the Rev. Paul Winterstein officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white satin gown, with beaded bodice and sleeves.

She carried a bouquet of carnations and baby's breath.

Maid of honor, Mary-Bejh Davidson, of Omaha, Neb., wore a dress of yellow chiffon with a short jacket. She carried yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Misses Virginia L. Fore, Theresa Blair and Mrs. Grace D. Young, of Baltimore and Mrs. Rebecca Berkeley, Cockeysville, Md.

Two wore dresses of apricot and the others dresses of light green and all carried bouquets of yellow, green and apricot daisies.

Flower girl, Leslie Allen, carried a white basket of yellow daisies.

Best man was Harvey Hurst, Camden, N.J.

Ushers were Edgar Hurst and Milton Pritchett, Blackwood, N.J.; Robert Moore, Camden, N.J. and Ronald Evans, Baltimore, Md.

Wedding music was provided by Donald Weher, organist, with Mrs. Fellisco Keeling, soloist.

Immediately following the wedding there was a reception where bridal party and guests enjoyed a sit-down dinner at Martin's Eudowood.

Guests attending were Mrs. Jackie Burton, Wash., D.C.; Miss Lorna Spicer, N.Y.C.; Mr. Mike Sommers, N.Y.; Mrs. Lucy Saunders and family, Washington; Mrs. Marjorie Cooper, Mrs. Wallace Ferguson, San Mateo, Calif.;

Also Mrs. Luna Reece, N.Y.C.; Mrs. Clara Johnson, N.Y.C.; Dr. Bernard Wilkens and family, N.Y.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lawrence, Bahamas; Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Gist, N.Y.C.; Miss Aida Ward, Hyattsville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. George King, Annapolis, Md.; Mrs. Viola Brewer, Washington;

Woodlawn Highlights

By Marjorie R. Green

Mrs. Rosie S. Keene, Social Security employee working in the downtown Metro West Building announced that her son, Calvin E. Keene, preached his trial sermon on Sunday, August 10, 1980 at Memorial Baptist Church. His subject was, "Take God as Your Partner."

Calvin is a member of a branch of the Armed Services, and is stationed at Andrews Force Base in Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Keene, who serves as recording secretary for the Women's Auxiliary to the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland, and other members of her family are long time members of the memorial Baptist Church. The Reverend Angus Smith is pastor.

When we arrived in the Birmingham, Alabama airport this past Saturday and boarded a B-727 headed towards Baltimore, Maryland and home we were greated by Mrs. Geraldine Chambers, a reconciliation clerk in the Metro West Building who had attended the Centennial celebration of the National Batist Convention, U.S.A. Inc.

Mrs. Chambers started her career with the Social Security Administration 13 years ago. Her assignement was in the Health Insurance section and she remained there until the section was dissolved.

Like many of the employees assigned the Metro West building, Mrs. Chambers states that even though she was in the first group to occupy the new building, she still hasn't adjusted to it.

Mrs. Chambers likes to spend her spare time working in her vegetable garden that is sectioned off in a small area on her ¼ acre lot in Essex. She also enjoys raising chickens in her spare time.

Born in Red Springs, North Carolina, Geraldine Chambers is an active member of the New Antioch Baptist Church. Her husband, the Reverend Willie Chmabers is pastor for the Church.

They are the parents of two daughters, Rochelle, a student at Chesapeake Senior High School and Sonda Staples who also works for the Social Security Administration.

Other SSA'ers seen at the National Baptist Convention in Birmingham were; Mrs. Ida Hurte, Mrs. Hughetta Whittaker, Mrs. Rosie Keene and Recent retiree, Reverend Arthur, Jones, pastor, Jones Tabernacle Baptist Chruch.
